PUSH WAR TO SPARE LIVES, WILSON URGES

Sup Delay Means Blood and Treasure—Asks Will Be Speeded.

ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—(Special.)—President Wilson is endeavoring to speed up the adoption of war measures of vital importance by congress. He called to the White House today twenty-six Democratic and Republican members of the house and senate and explained that every day lost in the passage of the war measures would mean a greater cost to the United States in blood and treasure. He declared it imperative that congress do these things at once.

Under the administration shipping bill providing for the construction of a $1,000,000,000 fleet of steel and wooden ships to meet the shortage of tonnage caused by the German submarine campaign.

Compromise the difference between the senate and house on the selective conscription bill in order that the government may begin at once the organization and training of the new national army.

SENATE READER.
The senatorial leaders who participated in the conference with the president today at the White House were: Messrs. Underwood, Martin, Jones, Wilson, Willett, Swanson, King, and Clegg; Messrs. Warren, East, La Follette, Smoot, and McMillan; Messrs. Clark and Fitzgerald; Messrs. Alexander, Padgett, and Kahn; Messrs. Gillett, and Clegg.

The president laid before the senators the full details of the selective conscription bill as amended to him by the members of the house and French war missions at the necessity of the United States to build ships with all possible speed in order that there shall be no interruption in the flow of supplies to the front.

SENATE MAY DECIDE WAR.
The president said that by the time it comes to put American ships to sea, the senate will have to decide the war. He said that the senate will have to decide the war by the time it comes to put American ships to sea.

THE PRICE OF THE DAILY TRIBUNE WILL BE 2 CENTS A COPY BEGINNING MONDAY, MAY 14

Undoubtedly every reader of newspapers is aware of the shortage of newspaper paper and of the fact that the price per ton has virtually doubled.

The peril of this situation lies not so much in the increase in price per ton as in the fact that the production of newspaper paper may actually not be sufficient to supply the demands of all the newspapers in the United States. For any considerable number of newspapers either to suspend publication or to curtail materially news and comment in these times would be little short of a disaster.

To limit arbitrarily the number of pages in each copy of "The Tribune" or the number of copies printed each day would mean, in the first instance, curtailment of news and, in the second, an unfair discrimination against those who wished to buy "The Tribune" but who might find the supply exhausted.

Consequently it is our decision, reached only after careful thought and some reluctance, that the only fair means for us to employ to participate in the movement to conserve the newspaper paper supply of the United States is to increase the selling price of "The Tribune" to 2 cents in the territory where it has been selling at 1 cent.

In addition it may well be argued that it is uneconomic to sell any product at a price that nets materially less than the raw material that goes to make it. For a long time the price received by us for each copy of "The Daily Tribune" has been considerably less than the actual cost of the white paper alone upon which it was printed. In recent months, also, the cost of other raw materials has advanced from 25 to 300 per cent.

In these times, also, it is incumbent upon large employers of labor to conduct their businesses as to cause the least possible disturbance to industrial life. Against the tremendously increased cost of producing "The Tribune," the increase in price now announced will tend to insure our employees of continued employment at no curtailment of wages. It will also enable us to continue to sell our advertising space at moderate prices, instead of being obliged to ask our advertisers to bear a disproportionate share of the burden of our heavily increased costs.

On the other hand, the burden of the announced increase in price will be distributed widely and fall lightly upon our big army of readers who are asked to pay it. In return, we can assure them of the continuation and further improvement of our service and of the thought that they, with us, are thus contributing to steady and to balance that part of our industrial life that is represented by the newspaper business and, through such co-operation, toward the most sensible aid that we can give to the government of the United States in these times.

For the above reasons we feel that the price of 2 cents is not only justifiable but necessary.

YEOMAN'S WIFE NAMES TEACHER AS INSULT

Because of charges preferred against a public school teacher in Edgewater by the wife of Chief Yeoman Lundberg of the Great Lakes Naval Training station, Capt. W. A. Moffett, commandant of the station, has demanded the return of recruiting credentials issued to the teacher.

The teacher's name is withheld. Several weeks ago he applied to Capt. Moffett for permission to aid in recruiting. He was given a letter of authorization. In making a trip through the west side in quest of recruits the school man invited Mrs. Lundberg to accompany him. In a secluded part of the west side he is alleged to have uttered an offensive remark.

CLAIMS U-BOAT NOW SUPREME; BRITISH DENY

Reports from Berlin and London Conflicting on Warfare.

LOG OF THE WEEK

LONDON, May 9.—Today's admiralty report of the last week's U-boat toll shows a total of 62 British ships sunk. This makes 414 British ships sunk in the ten weeks ending yesterday, as follows:

Week.	1,000 tons.	1,000 smaller.
First	14	3
Second	13	4
Third	16	21
Fourth	19	7
Fifth	18	13
Sixth	17	2
Seventh	19	9
Eighth	20	15
Ninth	25	13
Tenth (last week)	24	22
Total	218	102
Grand total	414

BULLETIN.
LONDON, May 9.—During the debate in the commons tonight George Lambert, former civil lord of the admiralty, declared that some day the British public would wake up to the gravity of the submarine situation and then there would be a panic. He added that Premier Lloyd George had offered him a post in the government which he had refused because he was dissatisfied with the manner in which the admiralty was dealing with the submarines and the national position generally.

LONDON, May 9.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, quoting Berlin advice, says: "Dr. Pfeiffer, naval reporter of the budget committee, declared in the reichstag that the submarine booty for April would not be less than 1,000,000 tons and added that the reichstag looked forward to the activity by the German navy with a confident hope of a speedy and victorious peace."

"Vice Admiral Von Capelle, minister of the navy, who followed Dr. Pfeiffer, said: "This recognition is new stimulus to us to fulfill Germany's expectations regarding the U-boat, which have faced enthusiastically the great task of decisively intervening alongside our victorious army. I assure you that the U-boats will persevere until the end. We have the necessary boats, a trained personnel, fuel, and all accessories."

RACH BOAT BETTER TYPE.
Thousands upon thousands of hands are engaged in producing new U-boats and new material for torpedoes and mines. Not only is the number of U-boats continually increasing but the boats are always improving in quality; they are always better types and of greater efficiency. Officers and men are crowding forward for submarine service.

"Of course, losses also occur. Our enemies' defenses are increasing in quantity and quality, but there is no radical remedy against U-boats."

"In England it was said: "We must smoke out of mastering the U-boats." Let them but come and try, they will bite granite."

SAYS BRITISH HIDE LOSSES.
"A decisive factor is the continually increasing monthly successes, which are such as we ourselves hardly expected. The reports in the enemy press about the number of U-boats lost are false. Our losses are small beyond expectation."

"In addition, weather conditions are improving. Summer nights are shorter and the stormy season of the year is ending. Every new submarine crew that sails is buoyed up by the consciousness that all is at stake."

"Three months' war experience is of more value than three years' peace experience. The U-boat crews are equal to all demands. We expected an average monthly U-boat booty of about 600,000 tons; actually the result for three months totals 2,000,000 tons. This is 50 per cent above our expectations."

"Altogether in three months 1,335 ships have been sunk. How long this will continue is at stake."

the remainder of this and the whole of the next fiscal year be raised by taxation. About one-half of this contemplated expenditure will be met by taxation and the other half by bonds.

"It is estimated that the receipts of the government, including postal receipts, for the next fiscal year under existing law will amount to $1,000,000,000. The proposed bill is estimated to yield $1,800,000,000 additional. This will make the total receipts for the next fiscal year $2,800,000,000, or about $85 per capita. The committee believes the American people were never in a more favorable condition to pay these taxes."

Must Raise $1,900,000,000.

The committee estimated the war expenditures for the remainder of this and the whole of the next fiscal year at about $3,800,000,000, exclusive of the bond issue to finance the foreign loan.

"We have already authorized a bond issue of $2,000,000,000," it added, "to provide a portion of the necessary funds to finance war. Therefore, the amount necessary to raise by taxation or a further bond issue, at this time is $1,800,000,000."

One of the hardest fights on the bill, it is predicted, will center about the increase in the excess profits tax. Much confusion arose among members over the new income tax schedules. Committee explanations of the language of the bill show that its practical operation would be as follows:

"It proposes a normal tax of 2 percent on individuals having incomes between $1,000 and $3,000. If single, $2,000 and $4,000, if married or head of a family. An additional normal tax of 2 percent would be added in the case of larger incomes. At $3,000 an additional surtax, graduated until at $50,000 and over it reaches 32 percent would be imposed.

Income Tax Provisions.

A married man with a $7,500 income, for example, would pay a tax of $200. It would be assessed in this manner: An exemption of $2,000, a tax of 2 percent, or $40 on the next $2,000 up to $4,000; a tax of 4 percent on the difference between $4,000 and $7,500, or $140; a surtax of 1 percent on all over $5,000, or $25.

A single man with a $7,500 income would pay $245. He would pay $40 at 2 percent on income between $1,000 and $3,000, $120 at 4 percent between $3,000 and $7,500, and a surtax of $25 at 1 percent on the $5,000 over $3,000.

Surveys under the present law do not begin until $20,000 is reached and exemptions begin at $5,000 and $4,000 for single and married persons respectively.

LABOR PLEASED OVER TAX.

Labor leaders in Chicago, who hold the view that "the rich fellow should be made to bear the financial burden of the war, in view of the fact that the poor fellow is going to do most of the fighting," expressed themselves as pleased at the income tax feature of the war tax program as outlined in yesterday's dispatches from Washington.

"They believe that, in view of the fact that the exemption limits are $1,000 for single men and $2,000 for married men, a majority of workmen will be non-taxable, and the burden of taxation will be thrown on the shoulders of classes better able to bear it."

Victor A. Glander, secretary of the Illinois Federation of Labor; John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor; and Emmett T. Flood, general organizer in Chicago of the American Federation of Labor, expressed themselves as particularly pleased.

Utility Revenue Large.

Some idea of the immense sum that will be raised from the tax on bills for light, heat, and telephone may be obtained from the following figures:

Company. Customers. Chicago Telephone company.....472,107 Commonwealth Edison company.....330,000 Peoples Gas company.....485,000

All these goers, even movie patrons, will pay taxes of from 1/2 cent on 5 cent tickets to 20 cents on $2 seats. Ball fans will pay 10 cents on each $1 ticket. Ten per cent will be the tax on the annual membership dues of all social, athletic, and sporting clubs.

On annual incomes of $1,000,000 the tax would be $400,220 for 1917. It is said, therefore, that checks for nearly if not more than that figure will be received from at least twelve Chicagoans.

DEADLOCK LOOMS OVER ARMY BILL

Washington, D. C., May 9.—There was evidence tonight that the senate conference was about ready to report a deadlock on the army bill and ask for further instructions. They are insisting on the senate provisions to enforce prohibition at army posts and to permit Col. Roosevelt to raise a division.

The differences in the age limits of these subject to the selective draft, 21 to 27 in the senate, and 21 to 40 in the house bill, also are still disputed.

HOLLWEG READY TO STATE TERMS OF PEACE AGAIN

German Leader May Talk on Monday in Reply to Questions.

COPENHAGEN (via London), May 9.—A special dispatch received here from Berlin says Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor, will answer a peace interpellation in the reichstag on Monday.

The dispatch adds that the reichstag will adjourn in the middle of May, but not to autumn, as is customary. Parliamentary objections to leaving the government uncontrolled from the May adjournment until autumn have resulted in plans for a short summer session in July.

May Not Be Necessary.

AMSTERDAM (via London), May 9.—The Tids' correspondent in Germany reports that parliamentary circles there expect the chancellor's reply to interpellations with regard to Germany's peace aims will be made unnecessary by a more official statement on the subject.

The main committee of the reichstag, according to the Berlin Vorwaerts, concluded a discussion of the administration of occupied territories by adopting a resolution that speedy measures be taken to repatriate German workmen. Another resolution declared that all workmen from the occupied territories in Poland and Lithuania, who were employed within the German empire should enjoy the same rights as Germans.

Some of the Progressives and Socialists complained of the administration in the eastern occupied territories. In answer Vice Chancellor Hoffmann said: "The German administration is doing everything to meet the wishes of the Poles."

Spurn U. S. Friendship.

The following resolution in regard to the distinction made by President Wilson between the German nation and its rulers was passed at a meeting in Fönn of the Imperial League of German Towns, which claims to represent five and a half million Germans:

"In a fearful struggle for its lawful rights against a world of enemies, the German people stands with closed ranks behind its kaiser and government. It has greeted with joyful satisfaction the proclamation of unrestricted U-boat warfare, which aims at protecting Germany against the unlawful starvation policy of Britain's sea power.

"The league declares further that the German people does not desire to have the friendship pressed upon it of a government that, like that of North America, which has done nothing to combat and overthrow Britain's inhuman and illegitimate starvation plan."

"ALL MUST PAY," CHICAGO VIEW

Representatives of various lines of industry in Chicago took the view that "all must pay," but some declared it would be hard on their lines.

"Where will the revenue come from if our industries are taxed to death?" asked John M. Glenn, secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' association.

George K. Spoor, head of the Ewesany Film Manufacturing company, said: "The bill will kill the industry."

"The tax means increased prices on all medicines containing alcohol and we will fight any tax on health," stated I. M. Light, secretary of the Chicago Retail Druggists. "Our national organization will take action."

William F. Juergens, president of the Chicago Jewelers' association, called it "taxation at too many points."

"We will establish booths to sell the war tax stamps," said Aaron Jones of Jones, Linick & Schaefer, owners of a string of theaters. "I don't think it will hurt business."

"The National and American leagues in a meeting soon will work out a scheme to apply the tax," said President Charles Comiskey of the White Sox. "It will have little effect on the game."

Representatives of music houses deplored the high tax on musical instruments, and men in the sporting goods lines were not optimistic as to the effect on their business.

Bonar Law Draws British Future in Picture of Lights and Shadows

(BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.)

LONDON, May 9.—Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, today in the commons discussed most of the main features of the war. Some of them, he said, could be viewed with great satisfaction by the British. Others were of a most disturbing nature.

One encouraging point made was the small losses, comparatively, suffered by the British in the Arras offensive. He placed them at 50 to 75 per cent less than those of the Somme, while the enemy losses were tremendously larger.

The U-boats, he said, had taken a large toll, but they were at a greater cost to Germany because they had aligned against the German allies the greatest neutral, the United States.

Huge Cost of Warfare.

Mr. Law was introducing the new vote of credit of $2,500,000,000, which he said was disturbing, because the figures represented a total daily expenditure of $27,250,000. Between April 1 and May, the chancellor said, there was a daily advance of $10,000,000 to the allies and dominions.

The credit brings the total since the outbreak of the war to $22,510,000,000. America, however, continued the chancellor, had acted with promptitude, for which the nation could not be too grateful. She had not only promised, but actually afforded financial assistance to Great Britain's allies, and he therefore hoped that the budget estimate of expenditure under this head would be realized. The present vote would carry the government on until about Aug. 1.

Effect of U. S. Entry.

"I would like to say one word about the entry of the United States into the war," continued Mr. Bonar Law. "Our German enemies have shown energy, organization, power, and resourcefulness of every kind, but they have made many mistakes. I think they have made one mistake in deciding to start on a ruthless campaign at sea, not against their enemies but against mankind."

"They must have had in view the possibility and probability of America being forced into the war. In spite of this calculation and in spite of the success which has attended this submarine warfare—which I certainly am not going to minimize and which may make the people of this country show staying power and suffer hardships unknown so far in this war—in spite of this, I at least have no doubt that on the balance they have lost—namely, by adding one of the greatest nations of the world to the number of their enemies."

"I should like to say further that all the information we have received bears out what could have been expected in advance—that the American people are not likely to do anything by halves and that the United States government has already shown not only that they are prepared to organize the full strength of the nation but that they realize to the full the value of immediate assistance."

Tells of British Victory.

Mr. Law then turned to the British offensive on the French front. The Germans, he said, were forestalled by the rapidity of the British attack. They had to fight on open ground in front of trenches which they had not had time to prepare.

From the beginning of April, the chancellor stated, the British had taken 20,000 prisoners, 257 guns, and 227 trench mortars and had advanced a distance of from two to five miles on a twenty mile front, as compared with an advance of three and a half miles on a six mile front in twenty-four corresponding days in the Somme offensive.

There were double the number of German divisions arrayed against the British now, he said, and of these half had to be withdrawn. The British casualties in the recent offensive had been from 50 per cent to 75 per cent less than on the Somme.

"It is gratifying to feel," Mr. Law added, "that a large part of our success was due to artillery superiority. In this branch we had a distinct superiority."

Will Punish Strike Leaders.

In reply to a question regarding strikes and labor in Lancashire and certain other industrial centers, Chancellor Law said there was unfortunately considerable unrest among certain sections of the engineering trade.

The government was satisfied that the unrest arose mainly from the activities of men who appeared to be as much interested in upsetting the authority of established trade unions as in causing trouble to the nation in time of war.

The agitation, he said, was disowned and repudiated by the trade unions.

The chancellor added that any action which the government felt to be necessary must be taken without delay against those responsible for this interference with the output of munitions.

Many Critics Aroused.

The debate following Chancellor Bonar Law's statement continued the whole evening, many of the members criticizing the conduct of the war and the failure of the admiralty to cope with the submarine campaign.

John Dillon strongly criticized the conduct of the war, especially in the Balkans, where he declared a "deplorable mess" had been made. He complained that the situation in Greece was going from bad to worse.

Mr. Bonar Law characterized Mr. Dillon's statement that Rumania had been bullied into the war as a cock and bull story. It was not true, he said, that the British government was keeping King Constantine on his throne. It was only Mr. Dillon's own imagination, he said, that it was difficult and unsafe for any members of the government to answer in public.

With regard to the references that the United States was entering into an alliance with the allies, Mr. Bonar Law said: "Alliance or no alliance, America will put forth her whole effort to preserve the unity of the world, and we are making nothing more from America than that."

PLAN CAMP FOR 1,000 MARINES IN GRANT PARK

If plans formulated yesterday by Capt. Moffett and Capt. William Brackett, the latter in charge of recruiting in Chicago for the marine corps, receives the sanction of the navy department, more than 1,000 men may be encamped in Grant park by the end of June.

The plan is to establish a camp on the lake front for the recruits who are now being sent to the marine corps training station at Port Royal, S. C.

An average number of enlistments was obtained at the army recruiting headquarters during the day.

Other developments of the day in the hunt for soldiers were the establishment of an information bureau for business executives at 124 West Adams street. Older men, needed for officers, are asked to apply at this bureau.

The arrival of former Junior Master William H. E. Taylor, who will train men for the officers' reserve. Maj. Taylor resigned from the Canadian army when this country entered the war.

Announcement of Lieut. L. M. Stevens that ten Chicago boys who enlisted during the last six weeks and now are on duty on the battleship Texas have already received promotions.

More than 100 applications for Chicago's regiment of engineers, which will be the first contingent to be sent to France, came to the office of Maj. Charles L. Bent in the Grand Central station. The navy recruited fifty men yesterday.

ASKS RECRUITS TO BE MARRIED

Boston, Mass., May 9.—All Americans going into military service should be required to marry before leaving for the front, in the opinion of W. Cameron Forbes, former governor of the Philippines.

"If the two million men we propose to send to Europe are allowed to go to war without being married it will mean the same number of women will be deprived of marriage and the bringing up of families," he declared. "The future of the race requires that these men, the flower of our youth, be represented in future generations."

Democratic Spirit Fostered.

Even the officers take part with the men in the games and contests, and thereby a democratic spirit is fostered in the army. We hope to introduce much the same system in the great training camps soon to be established. The commission on training camps activities will have a representative at each of the fourteen officers' training camps which are open on May 15, each of whom will be a community expert."

WOMEN READY TO PATROL CAMP AGAINST VICE

A guard of Evanston society and club women may patrol the north shore to protect the soldiers at Fort Sheridan from the wiles of women of the underworld if the suggestion that Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch made yesterday at the Women's club is carried out.

W. W. Gethmann, army and navy secretary of the state Y. M. C. A., had told something of the condition of camps near which prostitutes are permitted to settle. Mrs. McCulloch, at the suggestion of the chairman, and urged that the women continue to bombard the war department with demands for protection from what she termed "a menace worse than death."

"I have gladly given my son for my country," said Mrs. McCulloch, "but I insist, I demand that he be protected from these women. If the government will do nothing we Evanston women must walk up and down on the north shore and watch. If this be treason make the most of it."

The reform department offered the suggestion that the club women be turned over to the Evanston Y. M. C. A. for the soldiers in Grant park. Mr. Gethmann urged the women to contribute magazines and music records to the soldiers' camps along the north shore.

ALL WAR AND NO PLAY NOT FOR NEW SOLDIERS

U. S. Board to Provide for Recreation and Guard Morals of Camps.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., May 9.—[Special.]—Uncle Sam will go to unusual lengths to provide for the recreation of the hundreds of thousands of men who soon will be called to serve in the new national army, and every effort will be made to make the training camps and their surroundings free from the objectionable influences that formerly have characterized similar camps.

Recognizing the responsibility of the government to see that the men are not subjected to demoralizing influences, the war department has created a commission on training camp activities, under the direction of Raymond B. Fiedick of New York, a leading sociologist, who is drawing up plans to satisfy the recreation and mental demands of the new soldiers.

Study Canadian Camps.

In working out plans for the extra-curriculum activities of the training camps Mr. Fiedick and his committee are paying special attention to the methods used in the English and Canadian training camps. Mr. Fiedick recently made a visit to Canada to study the recreation provided for soldiers by the Canadian government.

"In Canada and in England," Mr. Fiedick said, "great emphasis is laid on games. Contests in football, shooting, fencing, etc., are held frequently between squads, companies, regiments, and even brigades and divisions. In this way the spirit of competition is aroused and the attention and the interest of the men are diverted into useful channels."

Democratic Spirit Fostered.

Even the officers take part with the men in the games and contests, and thereby a democratic spirit is fostered in the army. We hope to introduce much the same system in the great training camps soon to be established. The commission on training camps activities will have a representative at each of the fourteen officers' training camps which are open on May 15, each of whom will be a community expert."

THROUGH GREET'S JOFFRE ON BROADWAY

Million New Yorkers See
Hero of the Marne and Viviani.

New York, May 9.—(Special.)—Unprecedented, was the honor the New York City paid to Marshal Joffre, and others of the French command today.

The city greeting was shouted from the sidewalks and housetops. It was voiced in dignified phrases. It was voiced in the most beautiful of French, and it was voiced in the most beautiful of English. It was voiced in the most beautiful of both.

From the time of their arrival at the city hall at 4:30 p. m. until just before the parade, the French leaders were in the city hall, facing cheering throngs that pressed almost mad to do them honor.

They passed beneath hundreds of allied flags, and were greeted with the most beautiful of decorations, through the city's greatest thoroughfares. Everywhere New York outdid herself in welcome.

Salute Bartholdi Statue. The members of the mission caught their first glimpse of Bartholdi's famous statue of liberty as they crossed the Hudson river on a police boat. "Vive la France," Joffre stood at the rail, the former soldier at salute. Then the city's line drew their attention to the statue of liberty.

The greatest lesson of the war, M. Joffre declared, was conscription, because as long as there was a warlike army, democracy would be in danger. They duty be to remain armed.

From city hall the party rode through streets draped in Union squares, where Joffre passed a wreath upon the statue of Lafayette. They were greeted with a continuous cannonade of cheers. When news was passed as deeply as the city hall, they were greeted with a continuous cannonade of cheers.

"LONG MAY IT WAVE"

City of Evanston, Through Mrs. Harry Hunton, Presents Flag to Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Evanston, May 9.—A wave of color to the Great Lakes Naval Training station yesterday when a stand of colors was presented to the station by the Evanston volunteer committee. More than 5,000 jacks were in line when Mrs. Harry Hunton presented the banners and Commandant W. A. Moffett responded.

The stand of flags consisted of the national colors and the flag of the training station. As explained by Mrs. Hunton, whose husband is president of the enlistment committee, the gift is the recognition by Evanston citizens of the training station.

It was the first time since the declaration of war that the naval training station has been thrown open to the public and hundreds of citizens departed the banners that have taken place since the station opened from a camp of 1,500 men to one of more than 4,000.

The full band of the station played and a battalion of one day rookies who had not yet received their uniforms paraded past the colors.

The members of the mission caught their first glimpse of Bartholdi's famous statue of liberty as they crossed the Hudson river on a police boat. "Vive la France," Joffre stood at the rail, the former soldier at salute.

CAMBON REGARDS U. S. AS DECISIVE FACTOR IN WAR. PARIS, May 9.—The results obtained at the recent war council held in Paris were highly satisfactory on all points, and the American government has been informed concerning the discussions, according to Jules Cambon, general secretary to the ministry of foreign affairs.

The conference was attended by President Lloyd George, Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, and Maj. Gen. Sir William R. Robertson, representing Great Britain; Rear Admiral William A. Bland, representing the United States; and other military and naval leaders.

More and more it is becoming evident, M. Cambon said today, that the future conduct of the war is going to depend on America, the moral, material, military, and naval forces of which constitute factors of the very highest importance.

Owing to conditions in Russia, activity upon the eastern front may be somewhat slackened by reason of Russia's interior problems, but the action of America gives us advantages offsetting what we might risk losing on the eastern side. It indicates the growing role that President Wilson and America are called on to play in the final solution.

Agree on Bill to Raise Enlisted Men's Pay to $25. Washington, D. C., May 9.—Conferees on the war army bill today agreed upon a provision to increase the pay of enlisted men to $25 per month and increase the pay of other grades below commissioned officers, but not proportionately.

Willing to Open Dardanelles. LONDON, May 9.—In an interview published in the Bund of Bern, Switzerland, as forwarded in an Exchange Telegram dispatch from Copenhagen, the Turkish minister, Germany's ally, declared Turkey was willing to open the Dardanelles for Russia. The newspaper says the negotiations which led to the London agreement under which the Dardanelles was closed proved that this was not the case.

ALL PARTIES IN RUSSIA INVITED TO SHARE POWER

Government Comes Out for Coalition Ministry—
Groups Informed.

PETROGRAD, May 9, via London, May 10, 9 a. m.—A coalition cabinet in the near future was forecast in a long declaration of the provisional government published today. After reviewing the reforms accomplished and frankly outlining the difficulties under which the government is laboring, the declaration says:

"The attempts by separate groups of the population to realize their desires by expropriations or looting declarations, when made by the less organized classes, threaten to ruin interior discipline and unity and create favorable ground, on the one hand, for acts of violence against the new nation, and on the other hand for the development of private interests to the detriment of the general welfare."

Says Conditions Menace Nation. "The temporary government considers it its duty to declare frankly and definitely that such conditions render the administration of the country extremely difficult and menace it with interior ruin and defeat at the front."

"The rightful specter of civil war and anarchy hovers over Russia, threatening its freedom. There is a dark and path leading through civil war and anarchy to the return of despotism. This must not be the path of the Russian people."

Then follows an appeal for unity in support of the government created by the revolution, and the declaration concludes:

"The temporary government will renew with stronger persistence its efforts to attract into the staff of representative these active protective forces of the country which up to the present have not taken any part in the government of the country."

Asks All to Share Power. Simultaneously with the declaration appears a note addressed by M. Kornev, minister of justice, to the council of deputies and revolutionists, in which he says:

"I consider the condition of affairs now greatly changed. The situation is much more serious on the one hand, and as the other the power of the organized labor democracy has grown. That power no longer has a right to remain aloof from the participation in responsibility for the government when their participation will bring strength to the power born of the revolution. Under these conditions the representatives of the labor democracy must take the burden of power, but only after being formally elected and vested with power by the organizations to which they belong."

A congress of representatives of the Black Sea district, held at Sebastopol, has adopted a resolution demanding that Russia receive a full guarantee for freedom of traffic through the Dardanelles and also a guarantee that no enemy fleet shall be able to enter the Black Sea.

Americans of Military Age Detained in Constantinople

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Americans of military age are paying difficulty in leaving Turkey and the embassy at Constantinople is making urgent recommendations.

An official dispatch received today by way of Boston said that four American men were held at the Turkish consulate in Constantinople. The dispatch said that the Turkish minister, Germany's ally, declared Turkey was willing to open the Dardanelles for Russia. The newspaper says the negotiations which led to the London agreement under which the Dardanelles was closed proved that this was not the case.

RAILWAYS TO CUT PASSENGERTRAIN SERVICE A THIRD

Push Plan to Free Engines for Freight and Economize on Coal.

Plans for putting into effect the order of the subcommittee on national defense of the American Railway association to the railroads of the country to revise the passenger service of the roads as to avoid duplication and reduce the number of trains over competing roads between the same points are progressing steadily, according to railroad officials of Chicago.

It is estimated that when the revision of the passenger schedules is completed approximately one-third of the locomotives now engaged in passenger service can be diverted to hauling freight.

Roads Welcome Change. The ordered changes are not welcome to the railroads, for they will be in a position to eliminate such unnecessary competition.

As an example of this unnecessary competition, attention was called to the number of trains leaving Chicago for St. Paul at practically the same time in the evening. Between these points seven different roads operate fifteen passenger trains between the hours of 5 p. m. and midnight. The same situation exists between Chicago and Kansas City, six trains on rival roads leaving Chicago between 4 and 4:30 p. m.

"The traffic between Chicago and St. Paul and Minneapolis is not heavy enough to warrant the number of trains engaged in passenger service between these points," said an official, "but some of the roads could hereafter afford to curtail its service in any manner unless the other roads did the same thing."

Many Trains East. Between Chicago and New York a total of eighty-seven through trains operate each day. Of the number of trains leaving Chicago twelve are between the hours of 8 and 11 a. m. and twelve leave between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m. There seems to be no question in the minds of operating officials that a revision is needed here. By changing the arrival and departing time it may be possible to drop some of these trains without inconvenience.

A like situation exists between Chicago and St. Louis, where a total of twenty-nine trains are operated daily over four roads.

634 Trains Daily. On an average, about 634 passenger trains enter and leave Chicago stations daily, exclusive of suburban service. The estimated number of passengers each year is placed at 25,000,000.

One of the chief difficulties to be met in the schedule revision is the accommodation of passengers to and from intermediate points on the lines of the various roads. While several roads may have trains running between the same terminals they do not all go via the same route. Special effort will be made to protect the rights of all roads and avoid discrimination.

The roads will not act as a unit in making the passenger changes ordered. Each will work out its own problems, making arrangements with its competitors lines so that an equal share of the burden will be borne by all.

It is said the suburban service of the Chicago roads will not suffer to any marked degree.

BRITISH REGAIN PART OF GROUND LOST TO ENEMY

Germans Throw In Many Men to Retain Fresnoy Village.

By ARTHUR S. DRAPER.

LONDON, May 9.—Gen. Haig's men are now time returning to the front where the Germans regained the ground won after the bombardment of Fresnoy.

In a smashing attack that was little more than a veritable inferno for the Germans, the British succeeded in recovering a portion of the line from which the Canadians were forced to retire under yesterday's German onslaught.

Counter Attacks Fail.

North of Fresnoy the enemy attempted a fresh attack but his forces were repulsed by the allied artillery, while his thrust near Gavrelle on the left failed to penetrate the British barrage. Every move of the Germans in the day's operations resulted in victory for the British.

Northeast of Chocroix, which is a half mile northeast of Orono, the French captured a first line of trenches on a one mile front. The powerful counter attack launched by the Germans broke down under the barrage of the French machine gun fire, though for a time the enemy succeeded in gaining a small footing on the salient.

Germans Hard Pressed.

An officer of high official rank outlined the present status of the general military situation.

"The question of gain and loss on the western front is one of minor importance," he said. "The decisive battle of the war may just as well be fought in the present locality as anywhere else. There is no intention of breaking through the German army lines. Instead, we want to break down the German army. As it now stands, we are fighting for the Crocq-Guise line, which is the only remaining defense of Douai. If that goes, then Hindenburg must retreat."

"Gen. Hindenburg knows that in trying to break our attack he is fighting with his back to the wall. Our losses have been high, but the German losses have been more terrible. It is estimated that Hindenburg has brought into action about three-quarters of the divisions comprising his special reserve, and probably half of these have been put out of action."

100 ILLINOIS DOCTORS FOR WAR

Bloomington, Ill., May 9.—The 700 physicians attending the state convention of the Illinois Medical society today, with great enthusiasm, sent to the resolution committee a resolution pledging support of the war and urging all physicians of Illinois between the ages of 22 and 35 to serve immediately for examination for medical service and those between 35 and 45 for the medical reserve corps. The resolution also recommended the prohibition of all alcoholic drinks in all camps of American soldiers, at home and abroad.

DR. DE BEY LINES UP AGAINST RED CROSS WAR WORK

Dr. Cornelius De Bey in an address before the Chicago branch of the Woman's Peace party yesterday found it incompatible with pacifism to condone the work of the Red Cross as an organization. It was voted to refrain officially from cooperation with the Red Cross. Dr. De Bey said it is a time for standing by ideals. He said the pacifist service is a part of war. I protest against war and all its works. But as an individual my sympathies will go out to the suffering.

Henry Lane Wilson Gets Verdict in Hagwood Case

Washington, D. C., May 9.—A verdict of 8 cents and costs was given by the local Supreme court today to Henry Lane Wilson, former ambassador to Mexico, in his $500,000 libel suit against Norman Hagwood, former editor of Harper's Weekly. Mr. Wilson won on an article dealing with the killing of President Madero, the deposition of Huerta, and Mr. Wilson's alleged part in affairs in Mexico City at the time.

VISITORS SAY HAMBURG HAD FOOD RIOTING

COPENHAGEN, via London, May 9.—A hunger demonstration occurred in Hamburg recently, according to accounts of travelers printed in the Danish press, the trouble being characterized as serious.

It appears from these accounts that German children, of whom about a million are now being sent from the cities to the country for the summer, wrote home such glowing descriptions of food conditions there that the parents concluded the farmers were holding them up.

Meatless Days in France.

CLABAUGH SEIZES GERMAN, LONG WATCHED AS SPY

U. S. Is Urged to Intern Hans Halle Until End of the War.

Hans Halle, who has been under surveillance by government agents almost constantly since December, 1914, when he was arrested in New Orleans on a charge of making bombs to blow up a French mail transport, was arrested in Chicago yesterday.

Hinton G. Clabaugh, chief spy hunter in the middle west, immediately telegraphed to Attorney General Gregory advising that the German he interned until the war is over.

Worked in Roundhouse.

Halle has been working as an expert mechanic in a roundhouse on the west side. This gave rise to a report that evidence of an attempt to blow up the roundhouse had been discovered near the spot where Halle worked.

Pending an order from Washington Halle was committed to the county jail last night.

Halle has been living in the 1500 block on Washington boulevard since he arrived in Chicago three months ago and has been under surveillance constantly.

In rifling Halle's room at the Washington boulevard boarding house where he lived Mr. Clabaugh's agents found several pictures of Halle dressed in women's clothes.

A large bundle of newspaper clippings telling of Halle's two incarcerations in New Orleans was also found.

Halle was first taken into custody in December of 1914 at New Orleans. At that time a bomb was found in his possession and he was sent to the Federal House of Detention in New Orleans. He had constructed it to ship to New York, where it was to be put on a French line vessel. He was arrested again in June and July on similar charges but was freed.

Finkerton Man Praised.

O. Terrell, supervisor for the Pinkerton Detective agency, was given much credit by Mr. Clabaugh for the arrest of Halle. Terrell was familiar with Halle's history in New Orleans and when he saw him here reported to the government. Halle has been watched almost constantly since.

"In 1914, when the war broke out, Halle tried to get back to Germany," said Terrell last night. "He failed, and he told friends that he would serve Germany in this country. He then offered the British government a new bomb, which he had invented. His scheme was to send a sample of the bomb to England and have it explode on the way, blowing up the ship which carried it. He was arrested before he sent the bomb, however."

Ravenwood Brags About Its Whopping Big Families

Ravenwood bragged last night about its big families. At the tabernacle tent at Sunnyside avenue and North Robey street, where an evangelistic campaign is being waged under the leadership of the Quaker evangelist, Mrs. Daisy Douglas Barr, it was family night. Joseph Drake and his wife, Mary Drake, 1911 Lawrence avenue, were present with a family group of 35, all residents of Ravenwood. If all the family had been present there would have been sixty-one residents of Ravenwood ranging in age from 6 months to 80 years of age.

U. S. Marine Corps Finances Liquidated.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Official announcement was made today that the marine corps now contains 1,681 men. Its authorized strength of 17,400 was passed May 1. A bill to authorize a strength of 20,000 is pending in congress.

200 PROSPECTIVE OFFICERS REACH FORT SHERIDAN

Rules of Conduct Announced as Rookies Begin to Gather.

Rules for rookies telling how to be a military novice at the Fort Sheridan training camp for officers and yet act like a soldier arrived at the central army department adjutant's office yesterday.

The rules in general will govern the 15,000 men in the central department who will train, beginning next Monday, for commissions in the conscript army. Already Camp Fort Sheridan is taking on the appearance of a bustling training camp. Two hundred men have arrived from Michigan and Wisconsin, and 800 more are expected today and tomorrow. Col. William J. Nicholson, the camp commander, sent out 1,000 notices to men in Illinois yesterday to report.

Salute of Conduct.

Summarized, the rules are:

Punctuality is a cardinal military virtue. Cultivate it.

If you have suggestions or complaints, think them over carefully and then take them to your immediate superior officer only.

Between taps and reveille absolute quiet in barracks is essential. Any necessary talking will be in a whisper. Walk on tiptoes.

When your baggage has arrived show your assignment ticket to the baggage master and your baggage will be delivered to your company. There will be unavoidable confusion and rush; it will be well to keep an eye on your baggage.

At your company you will be issued certain articles for your equipment. You will be held responsible for them.

Names Are Listed.

The exact number of names which were in the hands of camp commanders at 5 o'clock Tuesday night was given out last night by Maj. Paul Malone as follows: Fort Sheridan, 4,400; Fort Benjamin Harrison, 5,233; Fort Snelling, 4,908, and Fort Riley, 4,120. The number passed by the examining boards is reckoned at about 500 in excess of these figures for each camp.

The department made public the following list of salaries of regular army officers:

Grade	Annual pay	Subsistence allowance
Second Lieutenant	$1,700	2 rooms at $15 each
First Lieutenant	2,400	2 rooms at $15 each
Captain	3,000	4 rooms at $15 each
Major	3,600	5 rooms at $15 each
Lieut. Colonel	4,200	6 rooms at $15 each
Colonel	4,800	7 rooms at $15 each

Says Hindenburg Claims Victory for the Germans

AMSTERDAM, via London, May 9.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg is again predicting victory, according to the Berlin Tageblatt. The paper quotes the field marshal as saying, in reply to an address from the Saxen second chamber:

"The soldier spirit, which is always cultivated by the all highest war lord, has again proved its strength. If the home army also holds on, then we are certain of victory."

ILLINOIS KEEPS LEAD IN GETTING SOLDIERS FOR U.S.

Army Officials Regret the Poor Showing Made by New England.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., May 9.—(Special.)—Illinois' total of accepted recruits for the regular army reached 4,290 today, 200 having been enrolled yesterday. Pennsylvania held the lead yesterday with 400 and is second in the grand total since April 1, with 4,678.

War department officials, who had been hoping for better recruiting results from the eastern states, acknowledged their disappointment today.

Figures for New England since the recruiting campaign for the regular army began in April which are way below expectations, are as follows:

Maine	.....	234	Rhode Island	.....	181
Vermont	.....	381	Massachusetts	.....	588
New Hampshire	.....	89	Total	.....	3,320
Connecticut	.....	441

Six of the middle western states have furnished to date a total of 17,316 recruits as follows:

Illinois	.....	4,290	Minnesota	.....	1,247
Indiana	.....	4,447	Wisconsin	.....	1,088
Iowa	.....	1,905
Michigan	.....	2,799	Total	.....	17,316

Indiana has furnished a larger percentage of its quota than any other state in the union except Nevada, which passed its quota of 162 many days ago, having enrolled to date 339. Indiana has furnished 4,447 of a required quota of 5,400, leaving only 953 to be recruited from that state. Illinois must recruit 5,000 more to fill its quota.

The total number of recruits added to the regular army from the whole country since April 1 has now reached 58,982.

The middle west came in for official commendation today also in its response to marine corps recruiting.

GET THE OTHER FELLOW.

There is an accepted euphemism to the effect that it is beautiful to die for one's country. The death of an able-bodied man might, in circumstances, be beautiful and it might be necessary, but it is more important that the able-bodied man, in war, kill an enemy of his country than that he die himself.

In war killing an enemy for one's country is more serviceable than dying for it. In war it is more beautiful to give than to receive. The bullet lodged in better than the bullet received.

A man lost to his country, which has spent time and money in training and equipping him. A man lost to the enemy is clear gain to this country.

We are not going out to die, but to kill. Dying, pro patria, may be a beautiful thing, but a more practical thing is to kill. Let the other fellow do the dying. He may have the beauty of it for whatever it is.

We might find an analogy in our own life of fighting, that of the prize ring. Jim Corbett was an adept at keeping away from punishment. He also could administer it, but he loved best of all to keep away from it. Joe Glimm loved to stick his jaw or his stomach out and take all the other fellow could give. Fitzsimmons could take, but he also gave better. He was ready to die in the ring, if necessary, but he preferred that the other fellow die.

That is the idea for us. It may be beautiful to take punishment when it is necessary to take it. But, in war, it is more beautiful and more useful to give it. The object of war is to cause death, not to accept it.

Death is a perfect loss when it is administered to the side you are interested in. It is a perfect gain when it is administered to the side to which you are opposed.

Americans are not going out to die for their country—any more than necessary. They are going out to kill for their country—as much as may be necessary.

What we want to offer up on the altar of our country is Germany—not ourselves. Dying for one's country is an acceptance of fate. We want to administer fate, not accept it. American soldiers are not cattle. They are not to be herded for slaughter. They are to act.

Pro patria, kill some one else. It is a dead loss to die for your country. It is a clear gain to make the enemy die.

YOUNG MEN AND THE ARMY.

In the union armies there were 131,476 boys of 18. There were 35,616 boys of 19. There were about 46,000 men of 20. These were only 1,000 men of 44. The boys marched better and fought better than the men. The boys saved the union.

Congress is not going to let boys of 18 to 21 into the national army. It is not going to give the greatest source of military strength at a time when immediate military strength will shorten the war. It is going to leave home the boy without responsibility and take the man who has begun to make himself valuable to the community. Congress has decided to do this because a few mothers still want their sons led to their apron strings. It is sentimental idiocy.

KILLING THE INNOCENTS.

Blood red and trilliums are in bloom. Violets are coming. Lady slippers, yellow and pink, will be along, where they have been allowed to live. The places where these and other modest decorations of the undeveloped woods are allowed to live are decreasing.

The cultivated flower may have a greater beauty, in form and color, than the wild flower, but in complete estheticism the wild and untended beauty is necessary.

This beauty of untended process, of unimpaired recreation, is being mauled by its heedless lovers, who ought to be content to see and not be determined to possess. They grab at the things they like and in grabbing lose them. A wild flower is important only in the place in which nature has seen it to put it. When picked it is merely a pathetic little dying victim to the altar of its heedless lover.

Within ten years there will be no wild flowers about Chicago if the reckless affection of destructive flower lovers be not restrained. An affection which destroys is worse than indifference. The flowers could survive indifference. They may not be able to survive fondness.

INTERESTING, ISN'T IT?

A German airplane has flown over Odessa. It is the first time this has happened. Hitherto no German airplane has flown over Odessa. The German imperial department for making announcements makes this one portentously, ominously, but as a prediction. The airplane is a buzzard picking a likely victim. Odessa, we are to infer, is next.

That threat is coupled with an offer of peace. If the Russians will stop fighting the German armies will not trample down the Russian wheat fields. They will buy the Russian wheat instead of taking it or causing its destruction. It is an olive branch or a sword.

What the German general staff will do, whether they will drive into Russia, capture Odessa, or some other conspicuous point, no one, probably not even the German staff itself, yet knows.

Some writers of complaints swear that a German offensive will save the Russian republic. They indicate that German inactivity will cause the Russian republic to fall apart, like a barrel with the hoops knocked off. Another set of writers think that German capture of Odessa, German military success against Russia, will smash the new Russian republic by discrediting the provisional government.

There is another phase of the situation to which we direct the attention of the thoughtful writers. It is the fact that the German national barrel

What is going to come of it? We learn suddenly that there is a constitutional reform committee working at something in Germany, considering whether army officers should report to the reichstag or to the kaiser, as formerly. And we have also the peevish remark by a conservative newspaper that such action would interfere with the perpetuation of royalty. Clearly some kind of germ has got into the German barrel and it is fermenting.

Would a successful drive against Russia stop this ferment?

Would the wheat that might be garnered from Odessa tend to stop this ferment?

If a successful drive would stop this process of democratization, this limitation of the kaiser's power, could the German army afford to spend money from the western front to make such a drive? Would the French and British break through far enough to take all the profit out of such a move—if, of course, there should prove to be any profit in it?

This war is getting quite interesting.

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND.

As this war has any definition of purpose beyond the purpose of national security, it is a war for the recognition of nationality.

It seems important now that there should be a free Poland embracing the territory in which Poles who want Polish national government should be free to have this national expression.

It seems important that there should be freedom for nationalities in Austria-Hungary and freedom for the electorate in Germany.

We can find plenty of reasons for insisting that the war shall free the Armenians from the Turks, shall give Greece a republic, Russia a democracy, Belgium an assurance of integrity, France a promise of security, and that it shall enable the status of liberty in New York harbor to shine undimmed.

Many of our arguments are necessarily illusive. In this progress of democracy we shall not free the Koreans from the Japanese nor the Hindus from the English. Life progresses by principles and also by compromises.

The compromises do not destroy, they merely modify the principles. Nothing can be absolute and final beyond challenge in human life, and therefore, this great principle of democracy will go ahead stuttering rather than clear voiced.

But in a war which ejects democracy as the principle there ought to be a different condition in some of the lands which are allied to the principle. The United States, which in a real sense is about to fight for the security of the United States, and in equally real sense is about to fight for the principle of democracy, would fight better if the allies to which it is joined were better established in consistency.

The outstanding issue is that of Ireland. Ireland, self-governed, might be disorderly. Provision easily can be made against that. We have the Platt amendment operating in Cuba. Great Britain can apply a Platt amendment and a fair bill of rights, an assurance of religious liberty and a protection against undue taxation, and give Ireland freedom with protective restrictions.

Great Britain may guarantee the preservation of order in Ireland, the maintenance of religious liberty and of a fair bill of rights for the individual, and then permit the Irish to govern themselves and have their own national expression, even as Canada, Australia, and South Africa have.

In a fashion it may be said that this is none of our business, but in a larger fashion it is our business. We do not like to stutter when we proclaim principles, and some stuttering is necessary in the United States when now we are asked to fight for principles which are not being applied within the national limits of application, by our allies.

We do not ask that our allies free the Moroccans, the Hindus, or the Koreans, but it seems within reason to ask that they give home rule to the Irish and thus help the United States in one of its own local problems.

If we are to help we ought to be helped, and this Irish question is now an American as well as an English question.

GOLF CLUBS IN WAR TIME.

The secretary of the United States Golf association says there is no rush to dig up golf links for crop raising and he is right. No golf spots the costly courses of the country to be destroyed when even in England, where farm lands are considerably less than in America, the government has not called for the sacrifice.

But something practical can be done by golf clubs and the golf association may well consider encouraging it. Labor which might be spent to better advantage can be economized. When golf clubs were not as opulent as they are in these days sheep were used to keep the course clipped. Now men are employed and these men might now enlist for farming or clubs could utilize them in cultivating the unused parts of the club grounds.

This may seem supererogatory. It will not seem so next winter if the war continues or if food production is not greatly increased.

Perhaps these measures of preparedness would not amount to much as compared to the total of American production. It would amount to a good deal as a reminder to a large class of Americans that war means personal sacrifice, and that every man owes his share. The well-to-do will have to bear more than their share, and can set a wisdom example by restricting their luxuries at the start.

Editorial of the Day

TO SAVE AMERICA.

(From the Cleveland Leader.)

There can be no dodging the issue now. It is squarely before the government and people. The only way to keep the war from the shores of America is to defeat the submarines in Europe. There is no other assurance of safety. And to beat them there requires the utmost exertions of the government and people of the nation which has long led the world in inventions and devices for overcoming difficulties in the mechanic arts and in all material tasks.

It is a problem grim and imperative, and it calls for the immediate and vigorous use of all possible means of solution. It must be attacked from all angles. There must be swift building of many ships and all possible support for allies of the United States in prosecuting the war. Above all, the navy and the ingenuity of this country must be exerted to the fullest extent to curb the submarines and protect vessels carrying cargoes to Europe.

It is an American task, for America. The world war grips the United States in its menace and its demands for hard hitting by this country. The need is urgent. We cannot wait for more convenient seasons. The peril is present and must be met now.

HOW TO CONDUCT A CHILDREN'S HEALTH CONFERENCE.

THE above is the title of a bulletin of the children's bureau. A children's health conference is a form of baby show developed for those who do not believe in taking advantage of the competitive instinct, at least so far as baby shows are concerned. The old fashioned baby show had nothing to commend it except that it stimulated a desire on the part of all mothers to have babies that were best in health, clothes, and various ways. In a health conference babies are examined and the results of the examination are marked down in a record sheet.

It is not against the rules of the bureau to have visitors, but when the babies are examined, however, Doctors Bradley and Sherbon, who wrote this bulletin, think it best not to have them. The nearer this show comes to being a free medical examination by competent physicians made in quiet rooms the better. There should be wall charts, diagrams and pictures, lectures and speeches.

A new fashioned baby show comes in between. It has all that a children's health conference has, but in addition it takes advantage of the well known universal desire, or almost instinct, for competition. The babies are examined, marked down, cards, prizes are completed and prizes are awarded.

There are some who prefer the health conference. For such the children's bureau has prepared. In a children's health conference the incoming babies are given a superficial looking over for evidence of contagion. Children who have been confined or who have been sick recently with any form of contagious disease are marked down. As far as possible, no one who has been in contact with anyone who has been ill should be present. The crowd may be distributed throughout the day.

The examination is along the same lines as that in the well known preliminary baby contest. The following is entered in a record sheet. The following items are taken from specimen record sheets:

"Baby S.—Two years old. Weight, twenty-five pounds ten ounces. Height, thirty-four inches. Temperature, 98.6. Pulse, 100. Respiration, 24. Appetite, good. Sleep, good. Stools, normal. Urine, normal. General condition, good. Remarks: Baby is healthy and happy. No signs of disease or contagion."

"Baby T.—Two years old. Weight, twenty-five pounds ten ounces. Height, thirty-four inches. Temperature, 98.6. Pulse, 100. Respiration, 24. Appetite, good. Sleep, good. Stools, normal. Urine, normal. General condition, good. Remarks: Baby is healthy and happy. No signs of disease or contagion."

The board of education decided yesterday to present economy on a large scale through 222 teachers in the city at frequent intervals to the parents of all school children showing the various ways to economy. It is also to enlist the mothers in the campaign, and the teachers will be to be always between the mother and the child in the home.

Classes for mothers will be organized to meet during school hours and arrangements will be made for the care of the babies and small children. Neighborhood groceries will be kept, economical food preparation in stock, and exhibits and demonstrations in food preparation will be held in certain school districts.

Plan Farm Camps.
The board was authorized to organize the high school boys in the plan of agricultural camps of a similar character which was proposed by James L. Frink, Mr. Shoop, and the board of education.

The board also is favoring the instruction of high school girls in military activities to the military training given the boys.

SNOW BRIDE

Couple Whose Honeymoon Was Spent in Alaskan Wilderness
Return to Chicago to Make Home.

Mrs. George Huth

A honeymoon among the snow-drifts and howling blasts of an Alaskan winter is a delightful experience, according to Mrs. George Huth, 4237 North Paulina street.

Mr. and Mrs. Huth have just returned from Skagway, Alaska, to make their home in Chicago. Mrs. Huth, who was Lillian Hayden of Geneva, Ill., left last October to make a 4,000 mile trip to Skagway, where her fiancé, Mr. Huth, was in the banking business. They were married on Nov. 2.

"I enjoyed the trip much more than if it were an ordinary 'divided' honeymoon," said Mrs. Huth yesterday. "I had some very thrilling experiences."

15 CENT LOAF IS TOO HIGH, STATE BAKERS DECIDE

Convention Agrees Pound of Bread Carries Profit
at 10 Cents.

Ten cent bread is high enough; it can be baked to sell a pound for a dime and yield a profit; loaves at 15 and 20 cents are not necessary, was the verdict of the Master Bakers of Illinois, in convention yesterday in Peoria.

After long discussion of cost of flour, baking, and delivery, the convention put the taboo on the higher priced loaf without a dissenting vote.

Impossible Here, Says Schulze.
Paul Schulze of the Schulze Baking company, when told of the action, said: "Maybe they can do it in the smaller towns, where they don't have to wrap and deliver, even with $16 flour, but conditions are different in Chicago. It cannot be done here."

The state organization has few members in Chicago. Even macaroni and spaghetti, praised as substitutes for costlier foods, took a turn upward yesterday. The 5 cent package will be 6 cents and the 10 cent size goes to 12. The familiar nickel package of crackers with this week began costing the retailer 6 cents, which means a price of 16 cents, and the 10 cent size goes up to 15.

Predict Lower Potatoes.
Potatoes advanced yesterday, but the dealers predict a turn for the better after May 15, when the new crop will begin to roll in. Although the market was without demand yesterday, the dealers who had them held for $3 a bushel for the old crop to the retailers.

E. T. Anderson, head of the royal food commission in England, who will arrive at the Blackstone hotel this morning, is expected to hold several important conferences in reference to the food situation of this country.

FLOUR GOES TO $16.60 AS MAY WHEAT HITS $3.14

The jump in wheat prices in the last two days has resulted in flour being marked up $1.00 a barrel, special brands of spring wheat flour yesterday being advanced to $16.60, the highest price so far paid.

All previous high records for wheat were smashed again yesterday. May sold at $3.14, July at $2.40, and September at 2.00. From the top prices there was some reaction due to profit taking, but the demand was persistent and net gains for the day were 12 1/2 to 14 cents.

Shorts were in a panic as a result of the bullish government report and there was practically no wheat for sale at the opening. Many traders had sold short on the strength of private advices of crop improvement, which led to the belief the government report would show a larger yield than indicated in April. Few in the trade looked for such a great loss in acreage.

United States Buys Several Austrian Merchantmen

Washington, D. C., May 9.—The federal shipping board tonight announced that it had purchased from American owners seven Austrian merchantmen held in American ports, totaling 32,461 tons, for $6,778,000. The price is about half the prevailing price for ships. The vessels will be repaired within a few months and placed in the war emergency trade by the board.

NORTHWESTERN GIVES 150 MEN TO OFFICERS' CAMP

More than 150 men have been accepted at Northwestern university for the officers' reserve corps training camps. At least 150 undergraduates and members of the medical school faculty will sell for France as the Northwestern university hospital unit, the first to be mobilized in Chicago.

In the medical and pharmacy schools there are 300 men enlisted in five ambulance companies, under the direction of a detailed army officer. Twenty-one men have sailed for overseas work in the U. S. C. A. camps.

The military drill in the college of liberal arts which was started last February will be continued throughout the present year and will be part of the curriculum next fall. The Northwestern university committee of the national research council is cooperating with the government, and the use of the university laboratories and buildings has been offered to the president.

U. S. Army in Market for Autos and Motorcycles

Bids from manufacturers only for 10-600 motorcycles, 5,100 automobiles, and 600 trucks will be invited by the United States quartermasters' depot in Chicago in a few days. The bids will call for prices on from 1 to 1,000 five passenger cars to cost up to $1,000, a like number of runabouts of the same class, 1,000 cars of $1,500, and 100 of $2,000 class. Five thousand of the motorcycles are to have side cars attached.

FOOD DICTATOR NOT FOR HOOVER

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Herbert C. Hoover in a conference with President Wilson today outlined his ideas of conserving the food of the United States and supplying the allies.

After the conference Mr. Hoover was asked if he would accept a position as food dictator in case one were created. "I don't want to be food dictator for the American people," he said. "The man who accepts such a position will die on the barbed wire of the first line intrusions."

VROOMAN TO HIT EGG BOARD AS FOOD QUIZ OPENS

Promises to Talk "Cold Turkey" to the Men Under Inquiry.

Carl S. Vrooman is going to talk "cold turkey" to the members of the Chicago butter and egg board this morning at 10 o'clock. He is assistant secretary of agriculture of the United States and the government's foremost expert in food prices.

Mr. Vrooman had a sensational day in Chicago yesterday, and his exit at noon today promises to close a spectacular morning. He almost turned things topsy-turvy when at the Association of Commerce luncheon he referred to Theodore Roosevelt as "a certain individual consideration of whose affairs are keeping congress from more important matters." He added: "Sending an army to France under leadership of a man who knows nothing of modern warfare I consider nothing more or less than wholesale murder."

"Not necessarily!" "Cut it out!" and grumblings of disapproval greeted his ears. W. R. Moss, who presided, beat the table with his gavel for order.

Predicts War Bread.
Mr. Vrooman told those at the luncheon that the nation probably would be put upon war bread—and that very soon. In these words Secretary Vrooman branded food speculators as he sat in the office of Robert W. Childs, special United States district attorney, in charge of the investigation into speculating and alleged "price fixing" by pluggers on the butter and egg board.

Simultaneously Mr. Childs cast a new fear into the hearts of the investigated by issuing twenty-three subpoenas for new witnesses, many of them employees of the firms under fire. And on top of this Mr. Vrooman said that he would meet Charles F. Childs, United States district attorney, at 11 o'clock this morning to discuss ways and means for handling the Chicago food situation.

Among the points he made were:

Sees Broadcast Indictments.
"What is the puppet of speculators. The farmer averaged to get $1.50 for his wheat last year. Look at the price today."

"The department of justice will have no hesitancy in bringing about indictments broadcast."

"There's a powerful lobby, representing those who would rob the public for profit, at work in Washington today trying to prevent control of the food supply."

Invited by the butter and egg board to speak to the membership, Mr. Vrooman agreed with the reservation that he might be "extremely frank" if he so chose. While he is talking with the butter and egg board, the federal grand jury will be in course of organization before Judge Landis.

RESORT GARDENS IS CHURCH PLAN
Sharing in the work of increasing the nation's food supply does not necessarily mean a hot and uncomfortable summer in the city. At summer camps and assemblies in Wisconsin and Michigan opportunities for doing one's bit as a food soldier will be plentiful.

The first body to report such plans is the Congressional summer assembly at Frankfort, Mich., on Crystal lake. The Rev. J. R. Nichols, president of the assembly, announced yesterday that two fields at the camp will be at the disposal of the congress. Thrifty vegetable gardens should be provided.

In Denae county, where the camp is situated, farmers are planting 50 per cent more than ever before, and men not eligible for military service, boys, women, and girls are being urged to fill out blanks promising to give a certain number of hours each week to helping the farmers harvest crops of potatoes and beans, cultivating vegetables, Paris green potatoes, and picking fruit.

THESPIAN Edgewater Drama Study Club to Give Half of Play Receipts to Red Cross.

Mr. Frank A. Portman

Women of the Edgewater Drama Study club will donate 50 per cent of the proceeds of their annual play this year to the Red Cross.

At the Broadway theater, 2308 Broadway, next Tuesday evening, they will present a bill of three one act plays, "The Bracelet," by Alfred Suter, "Makohlita," by Gertrude Robins, and "The Fifth Commandment," by Stanley Houghton, staged under the direction of Lester Alden.

In the casts will be Mrs. Flora Markwalder Reed, Mrs. Frank A. Portman, Mrs. E. W. Sherman, Mrs. Henry F. Porter, Mrs. George R. Baker, Mrs. Richard J. Finnegan, Julius W. Shiffman, Benjamin Hallas, and David Mark.

SIX FOOT-MARINE HEARS ECHO OF LOOP BATTLE

Briscoe Jones, a citizen of the Great Lakes naval training station, will be in the Clark street police court today under guard. Briscoe is more than six feet in height and hails from Tennessee. On April 28 he fell about one William Hanson in a saloon near Van Buren and State streets and Hanson went to St. Luke's hospital. Briscoe going to the Clark street station. Attorney James J. Kelly took an interest in Briscoe and put up a $5,000 bond for him. The sailor was placed on his honor and sent to the training station, where he was promptly locked in the "brig." It is understood the naval authorities will take charge.

U. OF C. RESERVE UNIT TO DRILL

The University of Chicago unit of the Reserve Officers' Training corps will be reviewed today by Col. J. A. Pann of the U. S. A. The corps is almost 600 strong and it is expected that it will be increased to 800 in the next few weeks. The university authorities have installed a plan whereby the students can drop a "major" of academic work and substitute therefore ten hours of military science and tactics. This is rapidly increasing the enrollment in the corps.

Uniforms for the corps will not be furnished by the government factories, which was the original plan, but will be made by local outfitters and paid for by the government, the university advancing the money for the uniforms. The corps probably will be uniformed in three weeks.

The guns will be furnished by the government and are expected any day.

Washington Hotel Placed.
J. W. Spence, manager of the Washington hotel, twenty-second street and Commercial avenue, was fined $50 for keeping a disorderly house and Mrs. Alice Swanson and Frank Shepard were fined $25 as inmates.

CLAIMS U-BOAT NOW SUPREME; BRITISH DENY

Reports from Berlin and London Conflict on Subsea Peril.

will continue is the enemy's affair. The U-boats guarantee our holding out.

"We all have a clear impression that English voices sound today quite different from those heard three months ago. They have become much more modest. Even England perceives that the U-boat war has not been a blow in the air, but a heavy blow against the vital center of our farthest enemy."

"We have the firm will to conquer and rock firm confidence that we shall perform our task."

BRITISH WELL LOSSES.
Twenty-four British merchant vessels of more than 1,000 tons each were sunk during the last week, it was announced officially. Twenty-two vessels of less than 1,000 tons and sixteen fishing vessels also were sunk. This shows a falling off in the tonnage loss. Last week's statement gave the number of lost ships of more than 1,000 tons as thirty-eight, under 1,000 tons as thirteen, and fishing vessels as eight. The official statement says:

"Vessels of all nationalities: Arrivals, 2,374; sailings, 2,490.
"British merchantmen over 1,000 tons sunk, including five not previously reported, 24; under 1,000 tons, 22.
"British merchantmen unsuccessfully attacked, including six previously not reported, 34.
"British fishers sunk, including one not previously reported, and thirteen sailings, 14.
"A British mine sweeper was torpedoed and sunk on May 5 with the loss of two officers and twenty men, the admiral announced."

Explains Defense Taken.
The submarine menace and the steps which the admiralty is taking to deal with it were brought before the house of commons today in a series of questions. In reply Thomas J. MacNamara, financial secretary of the admiralty, said it was not in the public interest to disclose what proportion of vessels sunk had been armed. He said, however, that merchant vessels were being armed as rapidly as possible.

All possible steps were being taken by the admiralty, Mr. MacNamara continued, to accelerate the entry of food ships into port. He regretted that the resources at the disposal of the navy did not permit of an individual escort for every vessel conveying foodstuffs, but said the admiralty had done everything possible to protect them.

In addition to the British vessels, reported by the admiralty to have been sunk, fifteen British ships had been reported overdue since Jan. 1 and no information had been obtained in regard to them.

Release Swedish Ships.
STOCKHOLM, May 9.—Approximately 90,000 tons of allied shipping which has been tied up in the Gulf of Bothnia since the beginning of the war will be released as the result of an agreement between Great Britain and Sweden which was perfected today. Sweden secures as its part of the bargain the release of its ships laden with foodstuffs and other necessities which have been detained in British harbors.

The Svenska Attonblad says, with reference to the Anglo-Swedish agreement, that it was not secured without compensation on the part of Sweden, the main condition by Great Britain being that the narrow sound used by British ships returning from the Baltic and which was mined some months ago shall be reopened.

The newspaper also says that guarantees were received from Germany that the vessels would not be torpedoed.

formation had been obtained in regard to them.

HAS A U-BOAT ANTIDOTE?
Washington, D. C., May 9.—(Special.)—It was learned tonight on unquestionable authority that the naval consulting board has submitted to Secretary Daniels and his advisers a definite and completed plan to cope with the German U-boats which has proved a revelation to the best technical brains in the service here.

The plan is based on a novel anti-submarine device or invention which is theoretically sound and which is a radical departure from any invention put into operation or heretofore thought of.

Elmer A. Sperry, inventor of the gyroscope compass and one of the leading inventive geniuses in the United States navy, is the inventor.

Urges Mentless, Fearless Day.
Jackson, Miss., May 9.—Gov. Hilde today issued a proclamation urging the people of Mississippi to observe one mentless and fearless day each week during the war.

A Jeffery All-Purpose Truck Will Cut Your Haulage Costs

If your haulage needs call for a ton and a half truck you cannot afford to overlook this Jeffery All-Purpose. It effects economy in two ways—it widens your delivery radius—it cuts the cost of truck maintenance.

Compare this Jeffery All-Purpose with other 3,000 pound trucks. Competing units of similar specifications are from one hundred to three hundred dollars higher priced.

The motor, for instance, has the largest bearings of any American four cylinder power plant. A duplex governor controls the fuel feed, holding the maximum speed to sixteen miles per hour, up hill or down. Electric lighting and starting—a convenience and a fuel saver. For the driver shuts off his motor instead of letting it run idle.

The frame is sturdy—made of heavy channel steel, with an ample margin of strength to protect the truck from service strains.

The entire "pay load" is carried by the extra large, extra strong dead rear axle. Power is transmitted by transverse drive shafts to the internal gearing in the rear wheels.

These specifications are combined with the finest workmanship. Let us show you how a Jeffery All-Purpose Truck will be a money saver, a money maker, in your business.

Let "Low Cost of Cooking" Fight High Cost of Living

Prices of almost everything you buy are going up—up—up—except gas. Stoves and ranges, like everything made of metal, are going up too. But—

HERE IS A REAL OPPORTUNITY for a big saving in your kitchen, if you act NOW.

Save $9.00 on this Range NOW!

Only $3.00 down and $2.00 a month for 15 months, $33.00

Act Now Before War Prices Go Higher

This range was built to sell at $36.00, as priced in our 1917 catalogue, page 44. An extra order—doubled—got us a discount that permits a price-cut NOW to $33.00 in small payments.

Since we bought, prices have jumped. On the basis of manufacturers' prices today, this range would sell regularly for $42.00 instead of our price—$33.00. Another price advance is coming.

This identical range is likely to be $50.00 or more, when the present supply is exhausted.

The range is a standard Composite Clark Jewel, an exceptionally satisfactory one regardless of price, with large ovens, 18 x 18 1/2 x 14 inches, holds 12 one-pound bread pans. Meat oven, 18 x 18 x 10 1/2 inches, accommodates roasts and poultry as well as steaks.

Splasher back and side, and door panels are porcelain enamel; burner tray and broiler pan are gray enamel. The range has self-lighter and is installed, connected and adjusted free. See it today downtown or at branch stores.

Just What the Red Cross Is

Since 1905, when Congress specially chartered the American Red Cross, every citizen—man, woman and child—in America is entitled to hold membership in it. The American Red Cross, while purely a voluntary organization, is officially designated by the government to supply the work of the army and navy medical corps, and to officially receive and distribute on behalf of the government all money and supplies required to relieve communities overwhelmed by disaster, and to co-operate through its base hospitals and other military units, with the army and navy.

The machinery of the Society interlocks closely with that of the government. The President of the Society is the President of the United States; its Treasurer is the Federal Controller of Currency; the War Department audits its accounts; the Surgeon-General of the United States Medical Corps and an Admiral of the Navy direct its committees on military and naval relief.

In time of war the government takes over the equipment and personnel organized by the Society, and every physician, nurse and officer on its roll is automatically given proper military rank.

So, you see, it is not a mere incidental place of relief machinery which the American Red Cross is building.

Twenty-five movable base hospitals, each of them capable of providing for the needs of an army division of twenty thousand men, have been organized during the past twelve months. Five have been provided for the Navy. The equipment for these hospitals, costing something like thirty-five thousand dollars each, has been provided and stored in orderly fashion, where it is instantly available. The trained personnel, consisting of 50 surgeons, 100 nurses, dentists, nurses, assistant nurses, stretcher bearers, orderlies, clerks, hospital cooks, carpenters, etc., has been drawn from the strongest hospitals and Red Cross Chapters in twenty-five of our great American cities, and, for a period of two years, is pledged to respond to the call of the government for active field service.

WHEN a great sorrow befalls a household the bonds of relationship grow stronger. In the brilliant revival of half-forgotten memories, joys and griefs of early life stand forth on the screen of memory, to remind us of the close ties of family. And so it is with our nation in this time when our big American family is gathered in council.

¶ We count the cost, but we dare not shrink while we remember our traditions.

¶ Some will suffer physical agony, and no one of us may hope to escape untouched by sorrow. Hardly do we wish for such immunity. With the time for sacrifice at hand, suffering in forms which in normal times we dread will almost be welcomed.

¶ And yet there are limits beyond which it has not been granted to humanity to endure. Lest those limits be reached we seek now to prepare in ways which later opportunity may not offer.

¶ Friend and foe will find the men in whom the nation reposes its trust have not been wanting in the will and the courage to do their appointed tasks on field and sea. Nor shall those men find that the men and women with whom they place their hope for solace when they fall, shall have done less than their utmost to prepare for their tasks.

¶ To many a stout loyal heart the call of humanity and of country will be more peremptory than the sighs of those dependent upon them. Regardless of the fact that our Government seeks to absolve from risk of battle many of those who leave dependents, is there a man worthy of the Great Call of Country to whom some one does not, at least occasionally, look with confidence for some sort of necessary aid?

¶ Here in Chicago there may be many too young or too old or too weak to fight their own or their nation's battles, who will feel most heavily the merciless thrust depriving them of fond protection.

¶ Whatever else we may be doing to help our country, and whatever else we may be willing and waiting to do, let us not lose this opportunity to help along the work of the Red Cross.

¶ Let us realize that every penny contributed to it will ease the throb of pain in some human breast, somewhere, some time, in war or peace.

¶ Let us not stop our contributions at one dollar if we can give one dollar and one cent, nor at two dollars if we can give ten, nor at twenty-five dollars if we may, in fairness to ourselves, make it one hundred dollars.

¶ The men and women of this City and of America to whose wisdom we look for guidance in affairs of State, in affairs of religion, in affairs of science, in affairs of business, and in affairs of all other human activity, unite in saying:

"This is a worthy cause," and if you and I need more authoritative endorsement, it is not lacking. To have faith we must have hope, to have hope we must have charity, and it has been said:

The greatest of these is charity

¶ There is no charity more practical than the work of The American Red Cross.

(C. H. G.)

The American Red Cross is authorized to take charge, under supervision of the Medical Corps, of all patients turned over to it in what we know as the second line—the rear of the military line. Here, in the great base hospitals organized and supported by the people in times of peace, the wounded soldier and sailor wait for the first time what is comparable to a regular hospital establishment. Here he receives expert surgical attention and the best care and nursing that a grateful people can provide. Letters from his home once at home are received and read to him here, and his letters home are written for him by clerks provided in the hospital.

Here he stays until well enough to be transported to one of the great general hospitals commanded by the government, back many miles from the war front, or until he is discharged to his home.

Let us build our machinery now, concentrate with our other resources. No organization holding a membership of two or three hundred thousand can truly reflect the generous impulses of our people.

Japan has more than two million members enrolled in her Red Cross. May there not be a vital connection between this fact and the fighting fitness of her armies and navies in her recent war? Germany had, as the outbreak of the war, nearly a million and a half members in her Red Cross. Does this not partially explain the fact that her military and civilian population have been cared for as no other nation in Europe has been cared for in this terrible war? Austria's Red Cross, with a membership of 350,000, broke down in the early stages of the war; her machinery was not adequate. While men died on the battlefield and in her hospitals, she had to stop, to patch her machinery, to expand it, and to bring into being what every nation should have before the call to the flag goes forth.

CITY COUNCIL O. K.'S BIG DRIVE BY THE RED CROSS

Campaign for Members to Be Conducted in City Hall.

Indorsement of the movement of the Red Cross to secure 250,000 members in Chicago was given by the city council yesterday and all city employees urged to join. As a result of the council's action, a strong campaign for membership will be conducted in the city hall by leaders in the membership drive.

Ald. A. A. McCormick introduced the Red Cross resolution, which was adopted unanimously. It reads:

"It is desirable to encourage everywhere the work of the Chicago chapter of the Red Cross and to assist the campaign now on to increase its membership."

The need is great, and the hour when assistance is necessary is at hand. The national government has appealed for assistance to the Red Cross, and it is only fitting that this movement, which is primarily humanitarian and patriotic, should receive the instant and hearty support of every American."

Next week will be "Red Cross week," and every organization in Chicago will be asked to do something special either to raise funds for the movement or to secure memberships.

The announcement of the number of memberships so far in the campaign will be made tomorrow afternoon. Every day is adding thousands to the list. Eighty-two girl employees of THE TRIBUNE joined the society yesterday. The fees were forwarded to the Red Cross by Miss Celeste Horton of the advertising department.

Packers Pledge $10,000.
Swift & Co. and its employees pledged $10,000 to the Red Cross fund. Applications for membership were circulated by the heads of departments. Miss Helen Trahan and ten other young women, dressed in Red Cross uniforms, secured members in the restaurant, in all departments in the wholesale markets, among the live stock buyers, and at the time offices at noon.

Allies Take Wheat from West.
Minneapolis, Minn., May 9.—The first shipment of the 700,000 bushels of wheat purchased here last fall by agents of the allied governments was shipped to Duluth today for movement east to the great lakes. More than 700 cars will be used to move the grain, which has been in storage here since its purchase.

SHRAPNEL

The Elgin city council has offered Wing park for use as a training camp.

Baron Du Vivier, instructor in the Gordon-Detwiler institute, has offered his services in teaching French to the officers in the new American army.

Col. Daniel P. McCarthy, department quartermaster, was notified yesterday that certain luxuries for the soldiers, such as tobacco, candy, and edibles not readily spoiled, will be carried free by the government.

On receiving the news that her brother had been killed on the Somme Miss Isabelle Caruthers, a deputy hallier in the Court of Domestic Relations, yesterday resigned to enter the Red Cross service.

Capt. R. P. Hobson, Spanish-American war hero, and Capt. Thomas Baldwin, who built the first dirigible balloon for the United States government, will be speakers tomorrow at the weekly noon luncheon of the Aero Club of Illinois in the Auditorium hotel.

A boat, the invention of two Chicago boys, which they hope will solve the submarine problem, was given a test yesterday at the Great Lakes naval training station, and it is said the results were received with enthusiasm by the naval officers.

The Evanston national and home defense council will hold its first meeting tonight to arrange for an information bureau and for a canvass of the

STATE DEFENSE COUNCIL CLEARS DECK FOR ACTION

The Illinois Council for Defense, which is already at work organizing the resources of the commonwealth in aid of the national council, will be permanently organized next Saturday.

The committee named in Springfield on Tuesday to perfect the organization tentatively met yesterday in the office of Levy Mayer and prepared a draft of the rules and a state of committees and officials.

These nominations and recommendations will be submitted to the full committee on Saturday in the office of Samuel Insull, chairman of the Illinois commission. With their adoption the machinery will be put in motion at high speed.

While none of the members of the commission would give out any information at the close of yesterday's meeting, it is understood that the commission's powers, when finally outlined, will be sufficient to make this work effective in every way.

Both Mr. Insull and Mr. Mayer said they would deem it in line with the general cooperative plans in view if no attempt was made to spread rumors as to what the executive committee did. It was stated officially that after Saturday's meeting the public will be fully informed as to details of organization and the scope of the council's work.

The nominating committee of the citizens' war board of Chicago met yesterday afternoon in the office of E. D. Herbert. The choice for president, it is understood, lies among A. A. Sprague II, John P. Wilson, and J. Orden Armour.

Negroes Leaving South, 308,749 in Few Months

Richmond, Va., May 9.—Estimates that 308,749 Negroes have quit the south within the last eight months to seek employment in the north have been compiled here by the Colored Citizens' Patriotic league. It is said most of the Negroes went to munitions plants and that 73,000 went to Pennsylvania alone.

New Corn Remover In Big Demand, Say Druggists

Since the virtues of ice-cream as a corn remover became known in this country druggists have been having an extraordinary demand for this product and it is predicted that this summer women will wear smaller and prettier shoes than ever.

The fact that this new discovery which is made from a Japanese product will actually remove corns—roots and all—without the slightest pain or soreness, is of course, mainly responsible for its large and increasing sale.

You apply just a little on a tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it may be lifted out with the fingers—root and all.

Ice-cream is a clean, creamy, snow-white, non-poisonous substance and will never inflame or irritate the most tender skin. Cutting or paring corns often produces blood, poison and people are warned to stop it.

Just ask in any drug store for a small jar of ice-cream which will cost little yet is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus. You'll like it immensely. —Advertisement.

CADETS REPLACE ARMY MEN IN TRAINING BOYS

Capt. Edgar E. Steever is making a vigorous effort to save the "Chicago experiment" in military training in spite of the government's order that the army sergeants in charge of the drill must leave. He returned to Chicago from Culver, Ind., yesterday for a conference with Lieut. James L. Frink, and brought word that twelve Culver cadets of the graduating class will come at once to take up the work.

Capt. Steever appealed to the boys to accept the situation like true soldiers and to prove their earnestness and their discipline by going on under the Culver cadets.

Orders from the war department, reads the statement, "indicate that our sergeants will be directed to report to the training camps about May 14. All of us greatly regret that conditions have made it necessary for the war department to take these instructions. This, however, is the first great test of our discipline. You and I are regulars, and we must and we will obey orders."

"These Culver men are magnificently trained, thoroughly capable, and you will obey them with the same spirit and with the same earnestness that you have exhibited in your attitude toward the regular army sergeants."

"If there be among you any dissatisfied with this arrangement, and unwilling to continue to do his bit in the present emergency, he will hand in his resignation and it will be accepted."

GIVES THREE CHIEF CAUSES OF PHTHISIS

Old, insanitary dwelling places, occupations described as "dirty," and a lack of enforcement of the ordinance prohibiting spitting in the street cars, on sidewalks, and in other public places are declared to be the three chief causes of tuberculosis by Dr. Meta E. Franke, who is in charge of a part of the tuberculosis survey of the city now being conducted by the municipal tuberculosis sanitarium.

Dr. Franke has been supervising the work of the survey in the "Goose Island" section of the city, a square mile bounded by Halsted street and Ashland avenue and North and Chicago avenues. Many of its residents are among the poorest class and are largely Polish and Italian.

Thus far in her investigations, which are nearing completion, Dr. Franke has found 1,740 cases in the district. Of this number 61 per cent are newly discovered by her and had not previously been reported to either officials of the health department or the sanitarium physicians.

"Misericordia, contaminated dwelling places in the district are one of the chief factors in the dissemination of the disease there," said Dr. Franke.

What Does A Dollar Buy from Your Dealer

DOES it buy merchandise or does it pay for his delivery mistakes?
A dollar is worth just as much as it ever was—but it won't go as far.
One reason is because some merchants haven't yet realized that it is good business to save money for their customers.

Efficient, modern delivery methods will do it.
22,000 progressive merchants have discarded horse delivery and converted pleasure car delivery.

They are sending their customers' goods home in VIM Delivery Cars—the sturdy, delivery trucks which are built solely for merchandise delivery needs. Built to cover twenty or twenty-five miles at a trip—to serve many customers and thus keep down the delivery cost per customer.

And built to stay out of the repair shop where converted pleasure cars eat their heads off with big bills.
Easy on tires, economical in gasoline consumption, designed to save expense for the storekeeper—that's the VIM Delivery Car.

The American housewife knows that her dollars will go farthest with the merchant who is good enough business man to save his own money.

The VIM Delivery Car is the easiest delivery unit to buy—through the Vim Deferred Payment Plan.

HOUSE VOTE ON CIVIL SERVICE
MEASURE TODAYBackers Claim Victory—
Ten Per Cent Alcohol
Bill Also Up.

Springfield, Ill., May 9.—(Special.)—Enough house votes are in sight, the Republican organization leaders claim tonight, to pass the Buck state civil service bill tomorrow in the house.

The bill was amended on second reading today at the suggestion of Gov. Lowden, so as to eliminate the provision that the governor might appoint such positions as seemed desirable from the merit law. Other agreed amendments included one that adds to the notice that must be given to an employee under fire. By a vote of 84 to 80 the house refused to stand for any amendments restoring the trial clause to the bill.

The Senate "10 per cent alcohol bill" also will meet its test tomorrow in the house. All other wet and dry measures will come up for action tomorrow.

The senate killed the Chicago teachers pension bill. The senate refused to recede from its amendments to the $60,000,000 good roads bill and it now goes to conference.

Senator Delley's bill providing a method of voting for Illinois soldiers in the field was passed by the senate.

Bust of Mergenthaler to Be Unveiled Tomorrow

The Old Time Printers' committee in charge of the Mergenthaler anniversary celebration, to be held at the Shepard school tomorrow at 2 p. m., expects Congressman Modell McCormick to make the principal address. Melville S. Stone of New York is also on the program.

Accompanying the bust will be a program of the Old Time Printers' association. The bust of the inventor of the Linotype will be unveiled by Mrs. Rody Peterson Perkins, a daughter.

CHICAGO TEUTON
CONFESSES TO
HINDU PLOTAlbert Wehde Tells of Plan to Seize Ships in East Indies.

San Francisco, Cal., May 9.—The ramifications of the German-Hindu plot to start a big revolt in British India became known yesterday in investigations by the federal agents working here under the supervision of United States Attorney John W. Preston.

Albert Wehde of 334 North Ashland avenue, Chicago, who arrived here yesterday from Honolulu in the custody of United States Marshal Jerome J. Smiddy of Hawaii, said he was one of the men who attempted to seize German interned vessels in the Dutch East Indies two years ago, the plan being to load them with rifles and ammunition smuggled out of this country. The Dutch government prevented the sailing of the vessels.

"We were trying to beat the British any way we could," Wehde told Marshal Smiddy.

Marshall Smiddy was a witness before the federal grand jury here yesterday and told of Wehde's revelations. He left for Chicago with his prisoner last night. In the grand jury inquiry now on, the name of Wehde is frequently mentioned, and the arrest Monday night of Charles Lattendorf, known to government investigators as Von Bruckner's "handy man," is regarded as significant.

Ram Chandra, Sundar Singh, and other Hindus under federal indictment in San Francisco, are a part of the Jacobson-Wehde junta of Chicago, Preston declared after his interview with Marshal Smiddy. Preston also indicated that Charles Lattendorf, cash manager and former bodyguard for Lieut. Wilhelm von Bruckner, who was arrested on Monday at Laguna Hills, Cal., was involved with Wehde and the Hindus in the anti-British plots.

In Lattendorf's cabin were found detail maps of California, blue prints of ships, clipings showing the disposition of troops, guns, horses, and commissary depots, and letters from Lieut. von Bruckner and Baron Wilhelm L. von Hardenburg of Los Angeles.

OUSTED FROM ROTARY CLUB

Wehde was once a member of the Rotary club, but was ousted when his German spy work became known. He has conducted an antique shop for several years in the Fine Arts building.

KALOMA'S FAIR,
BUT IS SHE ART OR
IS SHE NAUGHTY?

Kaloma! Is she serious, or just a bit of a mischief maker?

If Kaloma is art, she will continue to adorn the windows of local art and picture stores, as she has been for the last two years. If Kaloma isn't art, she will be summarily withdrawn.

The trouble started when an indignant and anonymous citizen began to write letters and telegrams to an Adams street art store concerning Kaloma. He threatened and enjoined, but the proprietors refused to heed.

Finally he sent a letter which read: "Remove that immoral picture from your window or it shall be done with a stick of dynamite."

Kaloma, stayed in the window. Then the self-appointed moral guardian sent a letter to the chief of police, who sent it to Mr. Funkhouser.

Italo Volini Ranks One at Interns Examination

The county civil service commission yesterday posted the names of the sixty-eight applicants for internships at the county hospital who received marks above 70. The examination was held March 22, 24, 26 in the county civil service rooms. Italo Volini is given first place with an average of 85.6.

"Yet, every glove in my trunk is Kayser Silk—
I wouldn't consider any other kind."

This year of all years buy silk gloves by name

THIS year, more than any other, you must buy silk gloves by name. The silk gloves for you to buy in a season like this—a season of scarcity and high prices—are the gloves that you know you can depend upon to give you value—Kayser Silk Gloves. By insisting on the Kayser name in the hem, you are protecting yourself from unknown, cheap gloves.

What the name means to you

For thirty-five years, the Kayser name in the hem of silk gloves has had a very definite meaning to women. It has meant to them gloves that wear; gloves that fit perfectly; that wash easily and with perfect results; gloves that emphasize the natural beauty of any hand and add the final touch to any costume.

Women who have worn Kayser Silk Gloves understand the importance of the name in the hem.

In spite of the high cost and scarcity of materials, Kayser Silk Gloves are the same value this year as they have always been. They are made by the same skilled workers who have learned the very best way to make a silk glove through years of experience. They will be made of the same perfect silk fabric—all pure silk, durable and lustrous.

Your dealer recommends Kayser Silk Gloves to you. All stores carry them now.

HOSE TROUCE BROWNS, 4 TO 2; CICOTE STAR

Eddie Stops Them After Williams Fails and Also Drives In Last Run.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

St. Louis, Mo., May 9.—(Special.)—By winning a much out victory today Chicago's Browns won a game and earned up this six game series with the Browns after a discouraging start. At three straight defeats, the Browns had been mauled by the Cardinals, who had won the first three games of the series. The Browns, however, were not to be discouraged. They were to win the series. The Browns, however, were not to be discouraged. They were to win the series.

Cicotte Stops Browns.
Eddie Clotte, picked up the game right there, and although he did not hit another hit game against the Browns, he stopped them dead and prevented the Cardinals from pulling the game out of the ruck and keep it.

Drive Williams Off Slab.
The Browns had a merry time while Williams faced them. Shotton was out when Austin walked and scored on Paulista's single. A wild pitch let Austin score. Jacobson walked a double over Jackson's head, scoring Paulista. That was "tap" for Williams, and Clotte was sent to his record. Eddie stopped that attack and eight weeks with great success. During the rest of the game the Browns did not get a man as far as third base and only three reached second on him.

Jackson Leads Big Attack.
The fourth round brought victory. Jackson led with a triple smash through Jacobson, who foolishly tried for it on the fly. Felix left to Marston scored. Eddie Clotte fouled out, then Higbee singled, stole second, and scored on Schalk's single. Clotte scored with a two base walk over first that registered Schalk with the final run.

White Sox Notes
St. Louis, Mo., May 9.—(Special.)—Home tomorrow, with New York as opponent.

Gandil led with three singles. Leibold and Jackson got two apiece. Hamilton worked the last two innings. He was touched for a single and a pass, which did not vary the count.

The White Sox have won eight games from the Browns and lost five to the Jones tribe, with nine more to play.

Stair was out of the game turning a spoked wheel which he acquired in the second game of yesterday's double header.

The Browns seem to have something on Letty Williams, for he has not been able to get beyond the second inning against them this year.

Although the weather was warm, a slight shower came up just before the game. Play was started in a drizzle that vanished in a couple of rounds.

Beginning tomorrow, the White Sox will be at home the rest of the month, and if the weather is at present, some morning practice, which they have been unable to indulge in since the season opened.

Notes of the Cubs
Brooklyn, N. Y., May 9.—(Special.)—At Denvers may be sent against the Robins tomorrow.

THE GUMPS—CHESTER IS SHORT ON MUSICAL KNOWLEDGE, BUT LONG ON PATRIOTISM.

THUNDER OF CUB BATS SURPASSES STORM IN 7-3 WIN OVER ROBINS

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Brooklyn, N. Y., May 9.—(Special.)—Not even thunder, lightning, and a spring shower could stop Chicago's Cubs in their first game of the year against the Washington Robins. With the elements threatening great damage the Cubs went upon the field and whipped the Robins 7 to 3.

It is getting quite common to relate the machinations of our Robins Zeller, so this will have to be a common report, because Robins once more was a big factor. He drove four runners across the plate and scored a double, a single, and a hit.

Rollie Poles Four Hits.
Rollie was at the plate five times. He made three singles and a two larger and there is no telling what he would have done had he got up there again. In the seventh it was his two base which put the Cubs in the lead and sent old Jack Coombs, of pitching fame, to the bench. Jack could not stand any more of it. In the eighth, when the Cubs had only one run left, Rollie came up with two boys and two out and drove the two on home runs, which settled the day's hopes beyond a doubt. At that time Sherrod Smith was on the base.

Besides all that clouting, Rollie turned out some fancy stuff as a shortstop and executed one of his cute tricks of stealing third base so he could score on a sacrifice fly. The couple better, however, hit a single, so Rollie didn't even have to hustle to score.

Michell Uses Three Hurlers.
Manager Michell introduced Dutch Ruether to the effect sent at the start of the game, but Dutch didn't last. He was a bit wild and it began to rain and two runs were scored off him in the first. Another came over in the third and Dutch wasn't seen or heard of again.

His place was taken by Mike Pendergast, who stopped any further rushing by the alleged champion, but in the seventh Mike gave his place at bat to Max Flack, his roommate, and when the lining was over the Cubs were in front by a run. "Blossom" Aldridge was next introduced and he hooked fast curves over the pan for the remainder of the game without once being in danger.

WOODS AND WATERS

YE ANGLER'S NEWS.

Ye anglers who expect to take a shot at the lake locked salmon in Lake Michigan had better do it now. In a short time the "run" is over. That is, the fish retire to deep water to spend the summer. Many local anglers, lured by the bright sun and the promise of a "chub" or "bass" were out to the nearby lakes on Sunday, but from what we have been able to learn, very few fish were caught, as the northeast wind stirred up the water considerably.

On the other hand, J. Babcock and wife got twelve nice bass at Loon Lake a week ago Sunday, with practically the same conditions prevailing. Figger it out yourself.

We have had a number of inquiries as to the exact location of some of the quarries south of Chicago that contain lime. But we are unable to help them. The few we know were shown to us with the understanding that we would "keep it under our hat." Those who know which quarries have big fish are keeping still about it.

His fishes of snow is reported from northern Wisconsin and snow water is running into many of the streams up there. Your advice is to wait a while or try some of the nearer places first. Ask us for the dope on these streams.

Some catches of pike perch, or wall-eyes, are being made in the Fox Lake country. The state planted 7,000,000 of these fish in the northern Illinois lakes last year. Fifteen million will be introduced this year. Louis Lane, Oak Park, caught a bass weighing seven pounds at Long Lake.

DETROIT'S PITCHERS WIN DOUBLE HEADER FROM INDIAN TRIBE

DETROIT, Mich., May 9.—Detroit won both games of a double header with Cleveland, 4 to 1 and 2 to 1, through the pitching of Elmer and Carrol Jones and timely hitting. Detroit went into the lead in the sixth of the first game, when two hits and a base on balls set two runs. In the second contest the home team pounded three pitchers for three hits, scoring eight runs in the first three innings. Scores:

Exhausted Locomotives FIRST INNING SPURT BY OAK PARK HIGH BEATS PROVISIO, 4-2

BY OTTO ENGEL.

Scoring three times in the opening round, Oak Park upset Proviso High, 4 to 2, in the rubber game. Proviso's walk, Phelps' safe punt, Wilson's double, and Meyer's error netted the three tallies. Another followed in the third, when Phelps reached first on an error, stole second, and rode home on Will's single. Catcher Collins of Proviso was hit over the heart with a pitched ball and was carried to a physician's office, where a cursory examination showed a slight fracture of a rib.

A novel element of interest developed among visitors to the used automobile show at the Coliseum as to do with the truck attachments on display—any of which, boiled to the chills at a moment's notice, might make a surprise attack on the automobile.

Complaints have been pouring in upon the Chicago Motor club from members protesting against a variety of hardships.

FASHION'S
BLUE BOOK

BY CORINNE LOWE

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence.)—Gingham has had the same spectacular rise in the world as potatoes or onions. Nowadays if one wants to be wholly smart and distinguished in one's morning costume one goes out and buys the old gingham material, makes it up simple as possible, and then prepares to put to utter rout the intrepid rival who has trusted to such inexpensive fabrics as silk jersey.

The little frock shown today came from France and may be had at the delicate sum of $75. The average woman can probably copy it at something near $7.50. Its entire distinction rests on the straight up and down lines, the cavalier cuffs and revers of white organza, and, most of all, on that ladder-like detail of the skirt.

Real Love Stories

The Smiling Draftsman.

THE office in which I was employed as a photographer was, on the fourth floor of a large building downtown, and from where I sat at my typewriter at the window I could look into the windows of an architect's office in an adjoining building.

One day one of the draftsmen whose table was near the window looked across and smiled at me in a most friendly manner. Being averse to flirting, I did not return the smile, but turned away. Not daunted in the least, he continued to smile at me every day, and one day he waved jauntily. His audacity amused me, and I couldn't resist smiling in return, which seemed to delight him immensely.

Apparently encouraged, he next put up a sign in his window asking me to please meet him in the lobby of the building in which I worked, but to this I shook my head emphatically. "No." Every day the same sign went up and every day I shook my head negatively.

I had an appointment one evening about this time to meet my sister in the lobby of the building in which I worked. I had been standing there a few moments when I walked a well-dressed young man, who came directly to me, taking off his hat and smiling rather bashfully.

Startled and annoyed, I was turning away to ignore him when he spoke in a low voice and in a manner that I know now could only belong to a gentleman. He explained hurriedly that he was the draftsman whom I had smiled at and begged me to listen to him for a few moments until he could assure me that his intentions were honorable.

I listened against my better judgment, as I thought then, and he told me that I had been riding on the same train as he for almost a year, and, although I had never deigned to notice him, he had been deeply interested in me. He had recognized me from his window, and after trying for months to find a mutual friend to introduce us had decided to take matters into his own hands.

I have never regretted that I listened and believed, for I have been married three years to the smiling draftsman and we are supremely happy.

HEORETIC T. There is no set time for smiling. It is a picture of any length. The length of time is determined entirely on the number of sets, weather, direction, etc. Some time, when I have hours and hours, days and days, months and months to spend, I shall write the story of my life. Trust you will be alive by that time to read it. O, I'll bet I could, too. But, you know, everybody thinks they can write scenarios.

TRIANGLE FAN: The manager of your local theater is mistaken. "Nina, the Flower Girl" and "The Princess of the Dark" are not the same picture. Both are, however, similar in theme and have leading characters that are almost identical. The blind girl and the hunchback. "The Smart" is Bessie Bricke's recent release. The old picture you speak of I have never seen.

READER: Following is the cast of "The Fortunes of Pin": Pin, Marguerite Clark; Cartouche, William Sorelle; Duramet, John Sengolby; Jolie, Yvonne Chevalier; Mme. Bourret, Kate Lester; Louis Bourret, Jean Gauthier; the general, J. K. Murray.

By Mae Thine.

"TREASON"—It's a Bluebird picture, and it is a picture of which no one need feel ashamed. It has a good little plot, some clever acting, and really beautiful photography to commend it, and of such things are creditable productions made.

As instructed by the title, it is a war picture, and we all admit that the market has been rather surfeited with these such good work has been done, however, with the material in hand that I feel it is one of the pictures of the day which you will enjoy.

A telegraph operator, Barriot, who has saved his country and been promised recognition by a grateful government is, through the treachery of a jealous government employee, made to believe that the country he has saved scorned him. After months of humiliation, in a rash moment he procures for the enemy a new secret code, at the instigation of a spy, which has just been completed by his own government.

It is no sooner delivered than he learns how he has been deceived and receives restitution at the hands of his country. At the risk of his life then he gets back the precious paper before any damage has been done. He goes unimpeded, save by the lassitude of his own conscience, and marries the beautiful and trusting girl who loves him. No doubt a better moral would have been pointed had awful retribution come upon him, but when you see the picture you will not wish him this.

Allen Holubar, as the operator, looks a trifle like Marc McDermott. Lola Wilson is a pretty and ladylike little person, and you are glad to see her happy. Other members of the cast were pleasing.

"THE HAWK"

Produced by Vitaphone.
Presented at the Ziegfeld.
THE CAST.
"The Hawk".....Earle Williams
The Hawk's Wife.....Denton Vane
The Hawk's Daughter.....Robert Galliard

HAVE never seen Earle Williams in a picture in which I liked him better than this one—although I have liked others of his pictures better. Also, he has had leading women whom I thought were appealing. "The Hawk" is a picture in which Earle Williams, who, although by no means a bad actress, has the fault of "amnesia." She has in this picture one set of expressions to express all emotions.

The picture, taken from the play, has suffered much, I suspect, at the hands of the censors. There are several lapses in continuity that are difficult to explain. These lapses have been padded. Also, I think I never saw people change chairs as often as they do for what reason I can't imagine, unless the furniture had been laid under the upholstery. (Fault in direction, of course, was responsible.) On the whole, though, the production catches and holds interest well.

The situation is triangular. "The Hawk," a gambler; his wife, who helps and loathes to help him cheat, and the "other man," who inspires her toward right doing through the love she gradually learns to feel for him, are the principal characters. With Mr. Williams as the husband, it is rather hard to imagine her loving Mr. Vane. The former gives a masterly performance. The supporting cast, on the whole, is excellent.

ASK ME! ASK ME!
S. F. V.: Violet Mercereau is with the Universal company, Universal City, Cal. She is playing in Bluebird productions, and her latest release is "Miss Nobody." So far as I know she is not married. Glad to be of service to you.

EMORY T.: There is no set time for smiling. It is a picture of any length. The length of time is determined entirely on the number of sets, weather, direction,

Tribune Cook Book

All recipes have been scientifically tested by Miss Edgington with current market materials and are intended by her.

BY JANE EDGINGTON.

Bargains in citrus fruits at this season are splendid. "Specials" are not as regularly advertised as two months earlier.

Thickened Lemon Syrup.
To make two broad jelly glasses of jelly and one tall glass of marmalade from one lemon seems a good deal to do, but a taster declared the marmalade delicious. It was beautiful of color, and I am not sure that a fourth cooking of the pulp with care would not have produced another quite as good.

But what was the important thing, from the economical standpoint, was that the jelly, though not stiff and shining in the same way a crab apple jelly is, represented an economic base for a refreshing drink, since three or four tablespoons were sufficient with additional sugar to flavor a glass of water. With additional flavoring with strawberries or pineapple no better foundation for a refreshment for party order could be asked for.

But it takes time and careful attention to do a nice little experiment like that, and if we have but a little time and yet would like to be economical of our time, we may proceed in the following fashion:

Squeeze out the juice from one lemon; add to it its own measure of water, and then as much sugar as the two make of liquid. Then cook to 230 degrees or so on a candy thermometer. This will not be a solid jelly, but will have body enough to hold up paraffin, which may be put over it to protect it. In this form it is every ready for service, and only so much need be used for a basis of a drink as satisfies our taste. Drinks thus made are in some ways pleasanter than those with uncooked juice and less expensive if we do not count the time we spend cooking the juice.

Marion Harland's
Helping Hand

BY MARION HARLAND.

Donates Patchwork Pieces.

READ in the Helping Hand Corner a while ago that Mrs. C. F. Harland had some gingham and calico pieces for patchwork. Will you kindly let me have her address? It will be a pleasure to supply her with them. I forwarded the Bible to Mr. B., whose address I got through the Corner, and a card from him this morning, acknowledging the receipt and expressing gratification in the gift. He says that he is glad to have the book and that he will use it often and thoughtfully.

"Mrs. E. H. H." This address went to you with the warm thanks of the Corner. We cannot have too many pieces of any and all kinds. We are pleased, but not surprised to hear of the Bible incident. Such star our progress daily.

Words of Song Wanted.
Do you think some member of the great family has the song of the beautiful "Sing Me a Song of the Sunny South"? I should be thankful to any body who would be so kind as to send me this ballad and should be willing, I assure you, to repay the favor in any way that I can.

We register the request, and, should it be practicable to secure the ballad for you, we will do it without thought of other recompense than your good will and continued interest in the great family.

Spanish-French Text Books.
Can you tell me where I can get text books on Spanish and French? That is, I want to learn these languages at home, and should like to have something like readers that are used in public school, with English words.

Instruction books in the languages you name may be bought at any large book store. Should any information upon this head be forwarded to us by public school teachers or pupils you shall have it.

Bright Sayings
of the Children

"The Tribune" will say $1 for each child's saying printed. The only condition is the story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. While no one is to be paid for his sayings, it is possible to acknowledge or return valuable contributions. Address bright sayings to Andy Day, "The Tribune," Chicago.

A little boy had a birthday party, his guests being around the ages of 5 and 6 years. After having spent a pleasant afternoon they all started for home at about 5 o'clock. After a while the little boy's mother noticed two little girls sitting on the steps and said: "You better go home, little girls, before it gets dark." One spoke up and said: "I want a boy to take me home."

Mrs. W. F. KOSHY,

Robert was taken to a dinner party at his Aunt Lucy's, which was unusual, and he was much excited. At the table he noticed at every place a tall water goblet, excepting at his own, which was an ordinary glass without a stem. His lips quivered, and his eyes filled with tears. Leaning toward his mother, he cried, "I want a vase to drink out of, too."

Last week my little daughter had a party. All the children were happily playing games except one little girl, who came to me and said, "When is Ruth's party going to begin?" Needless to say I hurried on the ice cream for the kiddies.

Anna was attending church with her mother. Anna began to sing as soon as the music started, and upon being told it was not yet time to sing she said, "Well, mother, why for do they waste so much music?"

Will Power Alone
Needed to Stop
Biting of Nails

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

MISS BETTIE BITING YOUR NAILS would not make your fingers stubby. Ridged nails are caused from a run-down system. You might be able to taper your fingers somewhat by massaging them from the base to the tips, being careful not to pull and break the joints. It probably will take some improvement. You are going to go right on having trouble with the quick as long as you continue biting your nails. Will power alone is the remedy. Let me send you my instructions for curing your nails in such good condition that you will not be tempted in the future to bite them. All you have to do is to send a stamped, addressed envelope.

LELLIAN A. THERE IS NO LOTION for straightening cross eyes. A condition of that sort requires the immediate and careful attention of an eye specialist. You can overcome round shoulders by practicing this exercise faithfully and systematically: Stand erect, weight on the left of the foot, with hands on the chest, fingers pointing horizontally toward each other, elbows on a level with the shoulders. With your eyes raised toward the ceiling slowly bend your body forward at the hips, keeping the eyes fixed on the point that you have chosen. Do not let the elbows sag. Practice the exercise for about ten minutes twice a day.

CLIP THIS OUT
MAY COME HANDY

Tells how to take sugar from a corn and lift it right out.

Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poison, which is needless, says a Cincinnati concern, who tell you that a small bottle of freezons can be obtained at little cost from the drug store, but is sufficient to rid your feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You simply apply a few drops of freezone on a tender, aching corn and the soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

This drug dries at once and just shrivels up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this. Genuine freezone bears the name, Edward Wesley Co., Cincinnati, O.

Pantomime Benefit of Mrs. Crane's for French Orphans

THE first of the series of pantomime performances given by Mrs. Crane's for the benefit of the French orphans, which has been so successful in the past, will be given at the residence of Mrs. Crane, 1500 Lake Shore drive, on Saturday afternoon, May 26, at 2 o'clock.

The marriage of Miss Laura Delano, daughter of Frederick A. Delano, vice president of the Federal reserve board, to James Lawrence Houghteling Jr., of Chicago, will take place in Washington, D. C., on Saturday afternoon, May 26, at 2 o'clock.

The ceremony, which will be performed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Delano in Sixteenth street, will be witnessed by a few relatives and close personal friends.

Miss Delano will be attended by her mother, Miss Louise Delano, and Miss Margaret Houghteling, sister of the bridegroom. A reception will follow, invitations to which were issued yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Delano.

A reception and dance were given last night in Kenilworth hall in honor of the young men of Kenilworth who have volunteered. Among the guests in honor were Gordon Marshall, Francis Allen, Leon Allen, Gordon Green, Clifton, Paul and Carl Schulte, Henry Everett, Edward Farnham and Walden, Ralph, and Kenneth Thorsen.

Charles S. Dewey of Lake Forest is to be best man at the wedding of Miss Dorothy Patterson, daughter of John H. Patterson of Dayton, O., and Capt. J. S. Judah Jr., which is to take place Saturday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's father.

Mr. George M. Fullerton of 1729 Prairie avenue, who has been in Springfield visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Gov. and Mrs. Lowden, is expected to return to the city today.

Mr. Potter Palmer is expected home on Saturday afternoon, at the residence of his father, Mr. J. C. Palmer.

In response to a telegram received yesterday morning from Secretary of the treasury McAdoo asking her to come to Washington at once, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank left in the afternoon, to be away until Sunday. She is to consult with the secretary on the work of the Women's League for National Defense.

A number of box parties have been given during the last few days at the Playhouse theater, where 20 per cent of the proceeds of the week's performances are to be given to the American ambulance field service. Among those who have given parties are Mrs. Morris L. Johnston, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, Mrs. J. T. Harahan, and Mrs. Arthur Meeker.

The Bara Dori fraternity will give a dance and reception this evening at the Hotel La Salle.

John B. Murphy and his daughter, Mrs. J. T. Benedict and Miss Cecile Murphy, have returned from a visit to French Lick Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Joy Morton and Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Morton, who have been in Chicago about the end of May. The junior boys of St. Jerome's school at Rogers Park will present a play tomorrow evening in their hall at Morse avenue and North Paulina street.

Formidable Name
Wished on Women's Defense Council
BY CINDERELLA.

IT takes a very clever person to remember offhand the name of the new society that was organized yesterday morning in the Fortnightly rooms, with Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen in the chair. While a vote was taken as to whether the organizers liked the name or not, who would have said "no" after Mrs. Bowen had read the telegram from Washington which wished the following names upon us? A very brave person, indeed!

WOMAN'S COMMITTEE OF NATIONAL COUNCIL OF DEFENSE. Members will have to carry a little card around and read it when people ask the name under which women of Illinois are working.

However, names don't amount to much, and it was a wonderful meeting before Mrs. J. C. Wood read a very simple and clear plan of organization that a small child might grasp.

Far as I can remember facts, here they are: Honorary chairmen, Mrs. Frank Lowden, Mrs. Antonette Funk, Mrs. Agnes Nestor; chairman, Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen; secretary, Mrs. George C. Wood; director, Mrs. Ira C. Wood.

The aims of the women's council for national defense are many. The first is to enroll every woman in Illinois. The registration fee is 10 cents and larger gifts are welcome.

Once enrolled each woman can do her bit as she pleases, under several conditions. One that will appeal to many is the keeping up of local charities. Another is the personal and household economy section, the study of dietetics, of simple living.

Another is food production, farming and gardening. Another is hospital supplies, comforts for soldiers and sailors' nursing.

Still another is the keeping up of the public health, inspection, care of the families of enlisted men. Canteens and allied war relief are two more interesting questions. In short, we have about a dozen different lines of work to which the women of Illinois will soon be established, perhaps in East Madison street, if not on Michigan boulevard in the same quarter.

There are names and names of well known women who head the various committees, and before the meeting was over Mrs. Armour and Mrs. Arthur Ryerson found their hands full of yellow backs that would keep them busy to help the good work along.

While this meeting was on another was happening in Fullerton hall of the Art Institute at which Mr. Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture, was speaking on what to plant, how, and when, and where. Unfortunately there was a very noisy audience, upon which Mr. Vrooman immediately commented, saying it was very evident we were not awake out here and didn't yet know we were up against it.

The truth of the matter was that hardly anybody knew there was such a meeting on, as it seemed to have been in dark secret by the domestic science people, who were running it. Later on at the luncheon Mr. Vrooman found that we are an anxious people, for when he said some things about C. Roosevelt there was hissing behind him and it took much time to get the master to make things run again.

If Mr. Vrooman only knew it, agriculture is quite the subject here now. Then as the end of a perfect day was Miss Emily Larson's motor bus party. About fifty guests were bunched southward, breaking the ice of the south side boulevards and parks to the Ida Noyes Memorial hall of Chicago university.

This is the finest building for women in the world and after looking it over the party was very delightfully received by Mrs. Jackson, assisted by Mrs. Angell, Mrs. George Eckels, Miss Naomi Donist, Miss Walsh, and others. There were several men in the party, Dr. James Stone, William Bryson, Arthur Wheeler, and Robert Mooney. Also some very nice Yorkshire dogs, belonging to Mrs. Arthur Ryerson, in an open car that led the way.

Theaters

SULLY tells at Powers and the Court tell the impending departure of "The Boomerang" and "Good Gracious Anabelle," two of the season's best excuses for going to the theater. Miss Kummer's blooded little play will leave on May 10, after its one hundredth time in Chicago, and it will be succeeded by "Seven Chances," a Belasco enterprise, whereof Carroll McCormack and Frank Curran are the leading actors.

"The Show of Wonders" will reach the Palace next Wednesday evening, after a day or two of rehearsal under the eye of Mr. Eubank, its mastermind. Bulletins from the spectacle announce that its premiere path will in twenty scenes traverse the planet from York state to Denmark, with a side trip under the ocean in a submarine.

Late in the month Herman Lieb will establish his stock company at the Wilson Avenue theater, presenting "Seven Keys to Baldpate" as the initial bill. The players will include Mitchell Harris, Miss Marguerite Hertz, Miss Evelyn Wallis, Miss Ruth Towle, and Charles Holman.

At the Majestic: "Young Mrs. Stanford"—This is an attempt to imitate the motion pictures called the "flash drama." It is played on a dark stage and as the characters speak and act they are illuminated by spotlights. In it a faithless wife is seduced by her wronged husband, while a faithless husband is seduced by his wronged wife. Performed in preliminary manner by Miss Emily Ann Wellman and others.

Herbert Clifton—A fa'etto vocalist in a skimming female makeup, he ravishes the audience with some of the best of his repertoire. He is a very popular performer.

Foster Ball—in his character study of a senile civil war veteran, one of the vaudeville classics. Some moments of it are incredibly good; others are incredibly bad.

The Foster Girls—Magnetic misses who know their way about among the songs, dances, and jokes of vaudeville. Less breath than formerly and more entertaining. They are this week's popular act.

Twenty O'Clock, E. B. A.—Twenty minutes of vaudeville, with songs, dances, and jokes. A very popular act.

Harold de Kase—A dancing man aided by two young women and much scenery. German Brothers—Vehement practitioners of comic duo.

Engagements: Mr. and Mrs. William S. Sackley of 4332 Washington boulevard announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian Catherine, to Edward Ellsworth Jr., Mrs. Jennie Myers of 4619 Wisconsin avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Josephine, to Max Morton Klein of Duluth.

Mrs. Malcolm McDonald of 949 Foster avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Nancy, to Trude A. Wiehe, son of Christian F. Wiehe of 1530 Jackson boulevard.

Head Knights Fourth Time. Attorney Le Roy Hackett, who was re-elected state deputy grand knight by the Knights of Columbus in state council at Danville yesterday, is entering upon his fourth term as head of the order in Illinois.

Dance at De Paul Gym. A card party and dance will be given tonight in De Paul university gymnasium by the De Paul university class of 1916 for the benefit of the new high school.

Speech on Birth Control. The women's auxiliary of the Chicago Industrial Clerks' union, local No. 1, will give an open meeting on Sunday, May 13, at 2 p. m., in room 611 Masonic temple. Dr. Anna Blount will speak in favor of birth control.

Cy De Vry Talk Tonight. The women's auxiliary of the Chicago Industrial Clerks' union, local No. 1, will give an open meeting on Sunday, May 13, at 2 p. m., in room 611 Masonic temple. Dr. Anna Blount will speak in favor of birth control.

FOR THE BABIES

Girl to Sell Flowers for Benefit of Day Nursery.

Miss Marie Tomaso, daughter of Antonio Tomaso, will sell flowers in a downtown elevated station next Saturday, the proceeds to be devoted to the Regatta Park day nursery.

The Successful Home Garden. This department will appear daily and Sunday in "The Tribune." It is a new feature that will give the home gardener a complete course in the art of growing plants in the home garden.

By J. F. H. Heide. Article No. 60. To Teachers and Principals. On April 23rd this column was devoted entirely to an appeal to the public interest in the education of the children of the city.
